Gay Men's Chorus raise their voices at Astoria High

ASTORIA — Astoria's North Coast Chorale is delighted to present a concert by the Portland Gay Men's Chorus. The group will perform 3 p.m. Saturday, June 30, at Astoria High School's auditorium. Admission will be $15 at the door; children under 12 are admitted free with an adult.

The chorus will be singing selections from their "United States of Broadway" Pride concert. If you like show tunes, you won't want to miss this show.

The Gay Men's Chorus first appeared in April of 1980, performing as part of Portland's Gay Pride Festival that year. The group seeks to "expend, redefine and perfect the choral art through eclectic performances that honor and uplift the gay community and affirm the worth of all people."

The Chorus has appeared at both national and international venues.

All proceeds from this event will go toward the Clatsop Community College Performing Arts Center, reflecting the Chorus' big heart and community focus.

Country music star rocks Relay for Life

SEASIDE — "Rockin' Out Cancer," a benefit for Clatsop County's 25th Relay for Life featuring country music star Ty Herndon, takes place Saturday, July 7, at Seaside High School. The event is free and open to all. Capt. Jack Sparrow's "cousin" emcees.

Enjoy live music at 5 p.m., a silent auction, photo booth, great food, family fun, hair-cutting and themed laps. Herndon's autographed guitar will be in the silent auction. The event kicks off at 10 a.m., and the Luminary Ceremony is at 10 p.m.

Donations will be accepted for those fighting cancer in Clatsop County, and a canned food drive benefits the County Regional Food Bank.

This year's event is dedicated to Doug Parvi, who lost his battle to lung cancer in October.

Relay For Life is the signature fundraiser for the American Cancer Society. Remember loved ones lost, honor survivors of all cancers and make a global impact on cancer.
