GEARHART — Dancers, booming music and a delicate network of lights filled the otherwise sleepy streets of Gearhart Friday night at the town's first street dance.

A block of Pacific Way was closed to accommodate about 100 visitors and residents for the Gearhart Downtown Street Dance to celebrate the town's centennial.

The dance was put on by the Gearhart Centennial

Crowds begin to gather to celebrate Gearhart's 100th birthday at the Downtown Gearhart Street Dance on Friday.

Committee to bring people together, committee member and longtime resident Melissa Eddy said.

"It's something I've always wanted to do," Eddy said. "What better time than for the centennial?"

Knappa woman arrested for arson after house fire Sunday

The Daily Astorian

A woman was arrested following an early morning fire Sunday at her home in Knappa.

Mona Lisa Heilmann, 56, allegedly set fire to the house on the 41000 block of Hillcrest Loop shortly before 3 a.m. Sunday. Several people inside the home were able to extinguish the blaze before emergency personnel arrived, but one person was treated and released from a hospital for fire-related injuries.

Heilmann had been living at a family member's home in Chinook, Washington, for several months. Family members recently had become concerned about her behavior, according to the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office.

Heilmann was arrested Sunday by the Pacific County Sheriff's Office and charged with first-degree arson. She is awaiting extradition to Oregon.

Those who have information relevant to the investigation can contact Detective Justin Dersham at 503-325-2061 or jdersham@co.clatsop.or.us.

Thomas Edward Geraghty Sr.

Astoria

March 3, 1943 — July 3, 2018

Thomas Edward Geraghty Sr. was born in Warren, Ohio, on March 3, 1943. He passed away on July 3, 2018 in his treasured home in Astoria, surrounded by his beloved family.

Tom was born in Trumbull Memorial Hospital to Susan and Thomas Edward Geraghty. He spoke fondly and often of the first chapter of his life there. As an only child, he appreciated greatly the kindnesses shown to him by his cousins, aunts and uncles. He graduated from Warren G. Harding High School in 1961 and attended Kent State University.

As a young man, Tom set a precedent for his life to come by working from the age of 14, while simultaneously pursuing the many endeavors which reflected his natural curiosity about the greater world around him. Whether working in a blast furnace, playing piano in a jazz band, taking flying lessons or just watching the fireflies on an Ohio summer evening, Tom's life was guided by his understanding of the value of hard work, but also in his belief that the people and experiences of a person's life were what mattered most.

In the late 1960s, after the birth of his much-loved first daughter, Tom made his way from Ohio and traveled across the country to find his home as an adult on the West Coast. He lived briefly in Los Angeles before moving to Arch Cape, Oregon, with his first wife, Patricia, where they started their family in a small cabin by the ocean. Tom's family grew and eventually settled in Knappa, Oregon, where he enjoyed coaching baseball and fishing often.

Tom spent the following years continuing to dedicate himself to his learning, in particular, his understanding of his life's work in carpentry. He met his second wife, Deborah, in 1993 and lived with her in Astoria until his passing. They shared an appreciation for spending time in nature, learning Spanish and, most of all, spending time with their children.

Tom was preceded in death by his parents. He leaves his sons, Leaf and Thomas, of Astoria and Portland, Oregon; and daughters, Ilona, Rosemary and Christina Guthrow of Bend and Astoria, Oregon, and Richmond, Virginia. Tom was a thoughtful stepfather to Ben Hamlin, Sabrina Pearson and Sonja Kallam of Bay City and Portland, Oregon, and Federal Way, Washington. He especially loved his grandchildren Grace, Maryann, Perry, Linda, Olivia, Krystal, Mariah, Emily, Beth, Nick and Lukas.
