

Cannon Beach college students may apply for scholarships

The Daily Astorian

A1 Auto Transport, a West Coast car shipping company, is extending its scholarship opportunities to all eligible students of Cannon Beach. The company awards scholarships of $250, $500 or $1,000 each year. To be considered eligible, students must have current enrollment at a college, university or other accredited school while maintaining a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Qualifying students must write an essay in 1,000 words or more that relates to the auto transport industry. Originality is a must, and all submitted essays must not be found published elsewhere or online. The scholarship awards go directly to the schools where the students are enrolled.

Essays must be submitted by March 10 to scholarships@alautotransport.com, along with the student's name, mailing address, phone number, email address and school name. A1's Scholarship Committee will announce all winning students on the website, bit.ly/2K-UPY2M, by the end of March, and also notify them by email.

Lorelee Svendsgaard of the Oregon Recreation Trails Advisory Council (ORTAC) updates participants at the Northwest Coast Trails Coalition's State of the Trails gathering.

The Daily Astorian

NEHALEM — On May 23 the local trails advocacy group Northwest Coast Trails Coalition (NCTC) hosted its second State of the Trails gathering at Nehalem Bay State Park. The annual event provides an opportunity for user groups and land managers to discuss local and regional trail developments and goals. Recurring goals included wellness opportunities and tourism enhancements.

The theme of this year's event was "alignment," as a focal point to remind attendees of the advantages of collaboration rather than conflict or fragmented planning. Presenters included representatives from Washington's Discovery Trail, Oregon Trails Coalition, Trail Keepers of Oregon, Oregon Recreational Trails Advisory Council, Oregon Coast Visitors Association, North Coast Trail Alliance, Tillamook Off Road Trail Alliance, Camp Rilea, Northwest Coast Trails Coalition Tillamook, Tillamook County Wellness, Tillamook Estuaries Partnership and Lewis and Clark National Historical Park.

NCTC meets the first Tuesday of each month at Fort Clatsop. For information, email nwcoasttrails@gmail.com

Natural resource leaders may apply for Class 2

The Daily Astorian

SALEM — Having successfully graduated its first class of natural resource leaders, Oregon Resource Education and Agricultural Leadership (REAL) is seeking applications from natural resource professionals from around the state for Class 2, which will start in November. REAL Oregon is an annual leadership enhancement program that exposes a cross-section of representatives from Oregon's natural resources community to the diversity of Oregon's geography, economy and cultures, and brings current and future leaders together from the agriculture, fishing and forestry sectors in a series of five statewide sessions starting this fall.

The deadline to apply is July 27. For application packages and information, go to realoregon.net. The REAL Oregon Board reviews application material in August, and announces the members of Class 2 in September.
