

HONOR ROLL

2018 Spirit of Caring Provider
Jimmy Thomas, MD, Hospitalist

“Dr. Jimmy Thomas makes every patient feel important and like family. He makes sure everyone in the family feels like part of the team. He is an excellent listener and a team player. He provides exemplary care to our patients.”

2018 Spirit of Caring Caregiver
Mark Muse, MSW, Care Management

“Mark Muse uses his well-developed skills as a social worker to help terminal patients and their families through the death and dying process by providing a safe and caring outlet for understanding and processing feelings.”

2018 Process Improvement Leader
Juliette Moore, MD, General Surgeon

“Dr. Juliette Moore is eager to ensure we are continually striving for medical excellence through her own practice, along with providing mentorship for those caregivers who are involved in both direct and indirect care.”

The people of Northwest Oregon and Southwest Washington have always been self-reliant men and women with a pioneering spirit. Throughout our 138-year history, Columbia Memorial Hospital’s dedicated caregivers have risen to the challenge of building a robust, independent medical community—enabling people of the Columbia-Pacific region to thrive now and into the future.

Thank you to the leaders of today!
