

SPORTS

CONTACT US
 Gary Henley | Sports Reporter
 ghenley@dailyastorian.com

FOLLOW US
 facebook.com/
 DailyAstorianSports

Seaside grad Kilday earns academic award

The Daily Astorian

Seaside High School graduate Allison Kilday, who just completed her junior year of track at Occidental College in Los Angeles, recently received an all-academic award for having above a 3.30 cumulative grade point average.

She was ranked among the top 35 individuals in Division III in her event.

The Occidental men's and women's track teams were named to the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association all-academic squad, for posting better than a 3.10 GPA as a group.

"We couldn't be more proud of the academic achievements the teams and individuals honored for their hard work in the classroom and on the track," Occidental head coach Rob Bartlett said. "We strive to provide our student-athletes with the opportunity to thrive in every aspect of their Occidental lives and it's fantastic to see so many Tigers doing just that."

The Tigers had a strong season in competition as well, with seven athletes making the national championship meet and four winning all-American honors.

Kilday set personal records last spring in the 200 meters (27.44 seconds) and 400 meters (62.10), both March 16 at the Redlands Invitational, as well as the 800 meters (2:23.23) and 400-meter hurdles (65.12, seventh all-time at Occidental).

The former Gull, who is majoring in economics at Occidental, was a 2017-18 team captain for the Tigers.

Occidental College

Seaside's Allison Kilday, left, had several personal best times on the track in the spring, and earned an all-academic award off the track.

Akiko Miller/For The Daily Astorian

A group of Knappa players enjoys a Hillsboro Hops game at Ron Tonkin Field.

Knappa Loggers honored in Hillsboro

The Daily Astorian

To the winners go the spoils — and the parades and special recognition nights.

The Knappa baseball program continues to be honored for winning back-to-back 2A state titles, as the Loggers were recently introduced during a Hillsboro Hops game, and will take part in a parade later this month.

A group of Knappa players and coaches were introduced July 26 at Ron Tonkin Field, as the minor league baseball team hosted (and beat) the Boise Hawks. The Hops are Hillsboro's Class A short season affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Knappa's Dale Takalo threw out the honorary first pitch, and Logger players were introduced midway through the game.

"They did something for us last year, when they gave us tickets and announced our team over the PA, but this year was a little bigger," said Knappa coach Jeff Miller. "They invited us up again, and Dale got to throw out an honorary pitch."

"They had us out on the field and mentioned our back-to-back titles and three in four years, and read off a bunch of our hitting and scoring stats. It was a real nice night. The Hops won, they had great weather and fireworks."

The summer baseball may be over with for Knappa, but the Loggers are still keeping busy.

Besides their appearance at the Hops' game, Knappa players will ride their own float in the upcoming Regatta parade, then will have a special fundraiser the following day.

Knappa players and coaches will take part in the Regatta's Grand Land parade Saturday, Aug. 11, and on Aug. 12 the Loggers will host a Bean Bag tournament and barbecue at Teevin Field, Knappa's home field behind Hilda Lahti Elementary school.

Sign-in and registration is from 3:45 to 4:15 p.m., and the tournament begins at 4:30 p.m. Pre-registration by Aug. 10 is $25 per team, $30 the day of the event.

The tournament is a fundraiser for the Knappa baseball team's spring road trip next season. Contact Akiko Miller at 503-298-

Dale Takalo throws the honorary first pitch.

The Knappa baseball team was introduced during Hillsboro's game.

8429, or by email at amiller97103@hotmail.com for more information.

Memorial walk/run

Before the Bean Bag tournament begins, the eighth annual Knappa Memorial 5K/10K walk/run will be held at 9 a.m., also Aug. 12.

The run is in memory of Lindy Yuill and Christy Miethe, sisters who passed away two years apart.

Miethe was instrumental in organizing the first two walks in honor of Lindy, and raising awareness of the importance of donating organs.

The proceeds from this year's race will go to the Christy Miethe Scholarship Fund.

Sponsored by Lower Columbia Hospice and Teevin Brothers Land and Timber, the walk/run begins at Woody's Wabbits on Allen Road in Knappa.

Registration fee the morning of the walk is $30. Children under 10 may walk for free. Information is available through the Knappa Memorial Walk/Run facebook page.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Knappa's Coffey named player of the week

The Daily Astorian

Knappa's Ryker Coffey was named the AA Legion Player of the Week for the Lower Columbia baseball club, for his efforts last week.

Coffey, a second baseman who will be a senior at Knappa in the upcoming school year, spent time playing for both Lower Columbia's AA and AAA Legion teams this summer.

Last week, Coffey had a two-run, walk-off single to right field in the bottom of the seventh to help Lower Columbia's AA team, Competitive Athletics, win its final game of the summer over the Longview 15's, 4-3.

Ryker Coffey

Seahawks WR Baldwin sitting out with knee issue

RENTON, Wash. — Seattle Seahawks wide receiver Doug Baldwin missed a third straight practice on Tuesday while dealing with a knee issue.

Coach Pete Carroll said after practice that Baldwin had a sore knee coming into camp. He practiced the first two days with the team before being held out each of the last three practices.

Mariners make outfield upgrade getting Maybin from Marlins

SEATTLE — Jerry Dipoto thought he was done making deals a day before the non-waiver trade deadline after remodeling the Seattle Mariners bullpen.

The Mariners' ever-active baseball boss just couldn't help himself when an outfield upgrade became available.

Seattle acquired outfielder Cameron Maybin from the Miami Marlins on Tuesday, giving the Mariners a boost going into the final two months of the regular season. Seattle landed Maybin in exchange for minor league infielder Bryson Brigman and international bonus pool allotment.

Astros snap five-game skid with 5-2 win over M's

SEATTLE — Charlie Morton did what's become expected on the mound in getting his 12th victory, while Evan Gattis and Josh Reddick provided the pop needed with all the big names missing from the Houston Astros' lineup right now.

Gattis hit a two-run home run to put Houston ahead, Reddick capped it with a two-run shot in the ninth inning, and the Astros snapped a five-game losing streak with a 5-2 win over the Seattle Mariners on Tuesday night.

— Associated Press