

Call for photos celebrating Route 6

TILLAMOOK — To commemorate Routes 6 and 131 being named an Oregon Scenic Byway, Art Accelerated Gallery is sponsoring a juried photography show: "Celebrate Route 6!"

Photographers are encouraged to enter their impressions of the beautiful Route 6 corridor. The deadline is Saturday, Aug. 11. Only emailed entries will be accepted.

Selected work will be on display at Art Accelerated's Gallery, 1906 Third St., from Thursday, Sept. 20, through Saturday, Oct. 20. An awards will be presented at the gallery during the Art Walk, 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 22.

For the complete prospectus, visit the Artist Call page at artaccelerated.org or email artaccelerated@gmail.com.

Get your science on at the Tillamook County Fair

TILLAMOOK — The Tillamook County Fair has a lot of fun available for kids and kids at heart. With the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry's Science Festival, Fair Acres, the Dairy Done Right Lounge and, of course, the carnival (and more), kids of all ages will have fun at this year's fair, held Wednesday through Saturday, Aug. 8 through 11.

Held in the TillaSkate building from noon to 6 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 8 and 9, OMSI's Science Festival is filled with science equipment and challenges.

With something for everyone, OMSI's Brainteasers will challenge visitors to use math, science and some out-of-the-box thinking to solve their hands-on puzzles ranging in difficulty and content. Incorporating concepts of geometry, algebra and/or physics, the puzzles oftentimes have surprising solutions.

Take some time to explore the tiny world and the innovative technologies coming out of the field of nano-science. And discover how satellites help us learn more about the Earth and the universe beyond.

From noon to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Aug.

10, and Saturday, Aug. 11, the TillaSkate building transforms into the Dairy Done Right Lounge, an out-of-the-sun area for families to take a break and enjoy Tillamook snacks as well as some fun dairy exhibits. Both the OMSI Science Festival and the Dairy Done Right Lounge are sponsored by the Tillamook County Creamery Association.

The Tillamook County Fair runs 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day. Season passes are on sale now at the Fair office, TLC/Fibre Federal Credit Union in Tillamook, and Columbia Bank in Tillamook and Manzanita.

For more information, visit tillamookfair.com or call the fair office at 503-842-2272.

At the fair, make friends with the environment

RAYMOND — An Environmental Education Fair is taking place all three days of the Willapa Harbor Days Festival in Raymond, Wash. The fair, sponsored by the Willapa Environmental Working Group, is Friday through Sunday, Aug. 3 through 5, with a booth near the Seaport Museum.

There are speakers, educational materials, hands-on events for kids, door prizes and more.

Starting at 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 4, presentations address environmental topics, including "Bees, Nature and Us" by biologist and lifelong beekeeper Paul Young and "Tying Our Economy to the Environment" by Jim Sayce, executive director of the Pacific County Economic Development Council.

Additionally, Nicole Apelian, Ph.D., a star from the reality TV show "Alone," talks about how our personal well-being is enhanced by connecting to nature and community, and answers questions about her time surviving in the wilderness with little more than her wits and her knife.

In addition to other prize drawings, plants that attract and sustain honeybees will be awarded, and the grand prize award is a Nicole Apelian-designed Emergency Survival Kit.
