QUEEN'S CORONATION

For over 100 years, The Astoria Regatta has been represented by a distinguished court of young women from local area schools. During the year, the chosen court will give speeches, make appearances and attend parades.

This was the second year of the Regatta Court Mentorship Program. The program aligns each of the court members with a leader who mentored her throughout the season.

Last year, Megan Postlewait was crowned the 2017 Regatta Queen, and she will hand down her title this year. The new Regatta Queen will be chosen from among the four 2018 Regatta Princess Ambassadors during the Queen's Coronation, on Wed., Aug. 8 at the Liberty Theater at 7:00 p.m.

MEGAN POSTLEWAIT

Megan Postlewait, the daughter of Marni and Walt Postlewait, graduated from Astoria High School this spring. She played soccer for two years at Astoria High School and swam for the Astoria High School swim team. Megan has been a Girl Scout for 12 years and has earned her Girl Scout Bronze and Silver awards. While in high school, Megan was the president of Mu Alpha Theta math honors society, and the president and founder of Euclid's Apprentices, a peer math tutoring program. She was also a member of the National Honors Society. Megan won first place in the Algebra 2 division at a regional math competition her freshman year of high school, and she won fourth place in the pre-calculus division her sophomore year. She has been an active member of 4-H for six years and loves her job at Frite and Scoop. In the fall, Megan plans to attend Clarkson University in Potsdam, New York, to major in computer science.
