8. Imogen Gallery240 11th St.

Welcome back Portland artist Tom Cramer. He brings bold, complex, color-saturated paintings and carved wood relief wall pieces. This series, "New Work," is a fresh abstract series Cramer created specifically for us. He seeks to offer a new collection of work, aimed at the first-time collector.

9. Cargo240 11th St.

Let us overwhelm you! Trinkets and treasures from all over, clothing from the ages and décor galore. The parklet is in full bloom and the 11th Street district is buzzing.

10. AVA New Gallery375 11th St.

Local artists Susan Darms and Carol Scott will show their work at AVA's new gallery space located across Duane Street from City Hall. Darms is a fabricator of intricate assemblages, incorporating a variety of experimental elements. Scott's work is equally engaging, incorporating watercolor, pastel and found objects in expressive pieces.

11. Oscar de'Masi Art Studio & Gallery395 11th St.

Stop by and visit with the artist in his studio. Landscapes, portraits and abstracts on display for purchase.

12. Luminari Arts1133 Commercial St.

We join the Regatta celebration with new works by Sid Deluca and Joi Smith. "Rock the Boat" incorporates all items watery. Music with Joey Patenaude and Mike Metzner of Scheckpea. Tarot card readings with Judith Niland.

13. Forsythea Home & Garden Art1124 Commercial St.

Check out what's new at Forsythea and the many lovely shops and galleries on the Astoria strip!

14. Old Things and Objects1144 Commercial St.

Old Things and Objects will feature its diverse collection of art and show a few new works.

15. RiverSea Gallery1160 Commercial St.

"Seeking Level" is a show of new paintings by Don Gray of Vancouver, Wash. His loose, gestural style and colors capture the essence of watery Northwest landscapes. In the alcove, Portland artist Sam Hingston has a series of large, fantastical blooms and jellyfish, each sculpted from carved and dyed wood.

16. The Art Stall1268 Commercial St.

Please join us to view the work of 24 local artists. Come see what's new and pick up an original piece of art for yourself or as a gift. Great prices and great variety. We also have the Summer Truffles by Moonstruck Chocolate.

17. TEMPO Gallery1271 Commercial St.

Edward Peterson and Thron Riggs are the featured artists. Peterson's dramatic use of color brings a vibrancy to the subjects of his paintings: a bison, a rooster and a grain elevator.

Thron's paintings from his camping adventures depict the natural beauty of our coastal beaches. Also showing: Janet Hutchings, Vicki Baker, Carol Smith, Phyllis Taylor and Mark Hutchings. Music: Peter Unander on jazz keyboard.

Company1287 Commercial St.

There are all sorts of creative ways to show off your most precious items, and we have mad skills and wonderful products to professionally preserve your memories. Join us to view several truly unique compositions framed for our loyal customers.

18. Old Town FramingLightBox shares the 'Sacred'

ASTORIA — LightBox Photographic Gallery will host the artists' opening reception for "The Sacred" from 5 to 8 p.m. Aug. 11, during Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk.

"The Sacred" is a juried exhibit that attracted submissions by more than 165 photographers from around the world. Fifty-two photographers were selected by the juror, world-renowned photographer Robert Adams, of Astoria.

"The Sacred" will be on display through Wednesday, Sept. 5.

"The photographer Dorothea Lange said that she wanted to make pictures that are 'second lookers' — pictures that reward repeated viewings. It has been my privilege to assemble an exhibition made up of such photographs," Adams said in a statement. "The pictures record what is 'entitled to reverence,' as the dictionary defines the word 'sacred' — times and places and people that point beyond themselves. We stand today in particular need of such testaments."

Among many awards, Adams has received the Guggenheim and MacArthur Foundation fellowships and in 2006, the Deutsche Börse Prize. In 2009, he was awarded the Hasselblad Foundation International Award in Photography, and in 2014 was elected to the American Academy of Arts

19. Designing Health1428 Commercial St.

Featuring Lulu Quinn, an artist and designer who creates colorful whimsical images. Lulu's work is all about fun! She uses her imagination and color to create vibrant juxtapositions of worlds. "Lulu's work is bright, imaginative and vibrant with a sense of humor which comes through," said Luminari Arts owner Charlotte Bruhn. "A lot of folks say her enigmatic images remind them of Dr. Seuss, with a twist!"

20. Creations Studio & Gallery1396 Duane St. (Duane and 14th streets)

Copper trees, found-object art, welded sculptures, amazing paintings and photographs. These, along with stained-glass mosaics, are what you'll find when you visit us.

21. Bridge and Tunnel Bottleshop and Taproom1390 Duane St.

A show of photographic works from local artists, Kirk Klinger and Jason Marble. Klinger is originally from Wisconsin, and Marble moved from Southern California as a professional photographer. Marble's recent photos capture the amazing history and beauty of Venice and Rome.
