Eat, dance, be merry at Sou'wester

SEAVIEW, WASH. — The Sou'wester Lodge hosts two energizing events this weekend.

Meet Elyssia Maya Schaeffer, an Ayurvedic nutritionist, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.,

Saturday, Aug. 25.

Her workshop, "The Art of Seasonal Nourishment: An Ayurvedic 'Cook, Learn & Eat' Dinner Party," explores summer seasonal foods, herbs and spices while preparing Ayurvedic Kitchari — a traditional Indian one-pot cleansing dish — and an herbal refrigerant tea.

Filled with nourishing ingredients, Kitchari is an indispensable addition to your repertoire of home recipes. Through this interactive workshop, you will learn which foods are your best allies in summertime and gain a deeper understanding of why eating seasonally is so critical to our health.

The workshop costs $20. Children are welcome. A maximum of eight students will be admitted.

Elyssia is a certified Ayurveda and yoga teacher, holistic nutritionist and certified wellness coach.

Then, from 11 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 26, Scott Schaeffer facilitates an Ecstatic Dance event.

"Ecstatic Dance" describes transcendental, sacred dance and other practices of movement meditation. As a rule, there is no talking, no cameras, no judgment — just a safe, open space where you can turn your mind off and be led by your heart and rhythm.

While not quite a workshop, Scott will facilitate with a brief introduction, definition and history of this free-form dance. Then join in as he plays a mix of world and electronic beats.

The cost is $5. Wear comfortable clothes that allow your body to move without restriction and shoes that allow your feet to move on a smooth concrete floor.

All ages are welcome. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

For both events, RSVP to souwesterfrontdesk@gmail.com or 360-642-2542. The Sou'wester Lodge is at 3728 J Place, Seaview, Wash.

These classes are part of the Summer 2018 Workshop Series. Visit souwesterlodge.com/calendar to see the full schedule of artist-led workshops.
