ASTORIA — Clatsop Community College invites artists to submit their work to the 2019 International Juried Exhibition "Au Naturel: The Nude in the 21st Century."

The "Au Naturel" competition is open to all artists from around the globe working in two-dimensional drawing, painting or printmaking media with a focus on the nude human figure as subject matter in any form — from representational to abstract — and in which the handmade mark is employed as the primary means of image-making.

There is a $40 fee for submitting up to three images, $5 for each additional image.

Applications are now being accepted online via the CaFÉ™ website at callforentry.org. Applications must be received on CaFÉ™ by midnight (11:59:59 p.m.) Mountain Time on Wednesday, Nov. 7.

Entrants must be 18 years or older, and submitted artwork must have been executed in the last three years and available for the duration of the exhibit. Visit the exhibit website to view artwork from previous "Au Naturel" exhibitions and for more information about the show at aunaturelart.com/

The 2019 "Au Naturel" exhibit will be open for viewing at the Royal Nebeker Art Gallery from Jan. 24 through March 14, 2019, with a special community reception at 6 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 7.

The exhibit awards include $1,000 in cash prizes and up to $2,000 in purchase awards. A select number of Visiting Artist Workshop awards will also be granted. Additionally, one artist will be featured in a solo show for the following exhibition season (2019-2020) at the Clatsop Community College Royal Nebeker Art Gallery.

The juror for the 2019 exhibit is Ashley Stull Meyers, who has curated exhibitions and public programming for a diverse set of arts institutions along the West Coast.

For a prospectus, download the document from the "Au Naturel" website or provide your mailing address at 503-338-2472 or kshauck@clatsopcc.edu.

For more information about the "Au Naturel" exhibition, contact Kristin Shauck at 503-338-2472 or kshauck@clatsopcc.edu.
