Young woman injured in accident recognized with scholarship

The Daily Astorian

Members of the St. Mary, Star of the Sea High School Class of 1967 gathered for a reception Saturday to honor their fellow deceased classmate by presenting the Stan Hauer Memorial Scholarship for $6,300 to Sierra Lyons, who attends Clatsop Community College.

Lyons graduated from Warrenton High School in 2017, and was attending Western Oregon University when injuries from a car accident required her to move back home. She enrolled at CCC to continue her education, and will apply to the college's nursing program, which offers an automatic transfer to Oregon Health and Science University's nursing program upon completion of her registered nurse associate's degree.

"I'm so moved that the whole Class of 1967 was a part of this gesture," Lyons said at the reception, "and I'm really grateful that CCC and the nursing program are right here to further my education."

Liberty Theatre receives $30,000 staff expansion award

The Daily Astorian

The Liberty Theatre has been awarded $30,000 from the James F. and Marion L. Miller Foundation over a period of two years to support staff expansion. Two new positions were created.

Nancy Schwickrath was hired in June as an administrative assistant to Executive Director Jennifer Crockett. She holds a bachelor's degree from Rutgers University in stage management, has worked on several stages in New York, and has worked for nonprofits.

Kelly Green was hired as technical assistant to ease the workload of longtime technical director, Larry Bryant. He attended

Wauna Credit Union launches an Adopt-A-Teacher contest

The Daily Astorian

Local financial cooperative Wauna Credit Union is launching an "Adopt-A-Teacher" contest in Columbia, Clatsop and western Washington counties in Oregon, and Pacific County, Washington, ultimately rewarding one area teacher $500 to help them tackle the 2018-19 school year. The 2017 Adopt-A-Teacher winner was Debbie Taylor, fourth- and fifth-grade teacher at Vernonia Elementary School.

The credit union is encouraging students, parents, teachers, principals and members of the community to post a video on WCU's Facebook page, fb.me/WaunaCreditUnion, explaining why the teacher being nominated deserves to win. Winners of the contest will be announced on or about Oct. 5.
