SO MANY GOOD BOYS AND GIRLS!

The Daily Astorian

Barley, 2, is Carl Earl and Laura Sellers' Welsh terrier bundle of fun, love and energy. Oh, and she doesn't shed!

In its third year, The Daily Astorian scooped up 171 photos featuring scads more pups for a National Dog Day section. That's not unusual, because the coast has already proven it loves its pooches. What is different this year, was people got the chance to vote on their favorite dogs in an online contest at bit.ly/Vote2018 DogDays. Online, there are 183 photos; some were not used here because that pup or pups were already entered. The Top 10 vote-getters are featured on the cover. More than 5,000 votes were cast. Thanks to all those who answered the call, shared their canine friends with the coast and came back each day to vote for their favorites. Thanks to all The Daily Astorian staffers who make this happen. Their pups are featured on this page. Now, who's a good boy? Who's a good girl?

Three-year-old Jasper the Chihuahua lives with Danielle and Dorian Fisher in Astoria.

Sadie, 2, and Honey, 5, are Holly Larkins' black Lab and golden retriever. The Astoria pups are 'Truly best friends!'

Ernie the boxer, 8, hangs his jowls with Jim and Sharon Stanovich in Astoria.
