

TV star John O'Hurley brings 'Standards' to Coaster Theatre

CANNON BEACH — John O'Hurley — an actor best known from "Seinfeld," "Dancing with the Stars" and currently starring in "Chicago" on Broadway — comes to Cannon Beach to perform his one-man show, "A Man with Standards," at the Coaster Theatre, 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 8.

Humorous and poignant, O'Hurley delights his audiences with the colorful stories and songs of his youth, and revisits his unforgettable moments on television.

"A Man with Standards" has been praised for O'Hurley's retrospective of music from the Great American Songbook, and has been nominated by Broadway World for the Best Show award.

O'Hurley is best known as the character J. Peterman on "Seinfeld," now the No. 1 syndicated show in the world, seen in 85 countries. He won a Screen Actors Guild award for his work.

He captured America's heart with his turn on Season No. 1 of "Dancing with the Stars," where he officially won the ABC series with the highly contested "Dance Off" and was named one of People Magazine's "Sexiest Men Alive."

O'Hurley is now the regular host of NBC Sports' highest-rated yearly show, "The National Dog Show presented by Purina," a 17-year Thanksgiving tradition seen by 30 million viewers, as well as the Beverly Hills Dog Show airing on Easter Sunday.

O'Hurley is also a New York Times bestselling author of three books and a Billboard chart-topping composer/pianist of two albums.
