

Body found in the river near the Astoria Bridge

The Daily Astorian

The body of a man was recovered Friday afternoon from the Columbia River near the Astoria Bridge.

He appears to have been in the water for several weeks, Clatsop County Sheriff Tom Bergin said. The man was found in what appeared to be work clothes. He was apparently wearing a purple shirt, gray pants and black boots, though Bergin noted clothing can sometimes change colors after such a long time in the water.

A number of drivers reported the body in the water near the Washington state side of the river. Law enforcement located the body just east of the bridge around 1:30 p.m. and sent a Clatsop County Sheriff's Office boat to retrieve it. "We couldn't pull him up the steep rocks so it was just safer," Bergin said.

The Astoria Police Department, the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office, the Coast Guard, the Pacific County Sheriff's Office and the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife responded to the scene. Clatsop County will lead the investigation.

Bradley Kent Campbell Hammond Aug. 25 1959 — Sept. 11, 2018

Bradley Kent Campbell, a resident of Clatsop County for over 47 years, passed away on Sept. 11, 2018.

He was born in Minot, North Dakota, on Aug. 25, 1959. His parents were William Charles Campbell, a teacher, and Shirley Ann Johnson, a banker.

His family, including his sister, Roberta Ann Campbell, moved from North Dakota to Seaside, Oregon, when he was 12 years old. His father had accepted a computer teaching job at Clatsop Community College. His family settled in Seaside, Oregon, where Bradley and his sister, Roberta, attended grade school and high school. Bradley graduated from Seaside High School in June 1978. He later went on to graduate from Clatsop Community College in Astoria in June 1995 with an associate's degree in applied science and business.

During his younger years, Brad had various jobs but enjoyed the restaurant business the most. In 1986, he started working for Doug Wiese and family at the Doogers Restaurant in Seaside, Oregon. This turned into his lifelong career (32 years). Doug asked Brad to be the manager of a new extension of Doogers in Warrenton, Oregon, where he has been the manager now for over 14 years.

Bradley was an active outdoorsman. He loved to hike, fish, hunt and go camping. His real passion, however, was sports, both playing and watching. Though the Oregon Ducks and Minnesota Vikings were his football favorites, his heart belonged to baseball, specifically the New York Yankees.

He loved the sport so much that he devoted his time running the Seaside Kids baseball program, which touched many lives of children and families in the area. He was often lovingly referred to as "Mr. Baseball." Bradley loved sports and working with kids so much that he decided to become an umpire for baseball, and a referee for football and basketball. He followed all of the local teams in each sport area, and often drove hundreds of miles just to watch the teams play.

Bradley married Mary Ann McCaulley in September 1981. They had two girls, Brittney Elizabeth, born on Sept. 23, 1985, and Brooklyn Nicole, born on Nov. 5, 1991. Their son, Bryon William, was stillborn in January 1989, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery in Astoria, Oregon. Bradley and Mary divorced in June 2006.

Brad's pride and joy are his children and his extended family. He was very involved in his children's school and sports decisions. Brittney Elizabeth Campbell, now a teacher at Warrenton Grade school, married Zachary Gantenbein, a commercial lender for U.S. Bank in Astoria, in July 2008. They have two girls, Karli, born Dec. 1, 2011, and Erika, born April 28, 2013. Brooklyn Nicole, also a teacher, lives in Bremer-ton, Washington, and married William (Billy) Kerr, a Navy Petty Officer First Class, in June 2013. They also have two girls, Brie, born Sept. 1, 2014, and Baylee, born May 14, 2017. Brad's sister, Roberta, now lives in Cocoa, Florida, with her husband, Warren McKee. Brad's mother, Shirley, is presently living at Neawanna by the Sea Retirement Community. Brad's father, William, passed away in November 2012.

After a 10-year courtship, Brad and Danielle Thompson were married on Jan. 7, 2017. Danielle is a retired special education teacher and restaurant server. Brad and Danielle loved to travel to and explore new places together — riding their motorcycle, or flying off to new adventures.

They shared a love of animals, sports and family. Danielle's two children, Michael and Ian, not only played sports with Brad, and worked at Doogers alongside their stepdad, but also respected and loved Brad for the person he was. They had a special father-son bond.

Brad was an active member of the community. He donated to many charities, gave blood to the Red Cross and volunteered his time in the community. He was a member of the Elks and the American Legion. He was very religious, and was an active member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Seaside, Oregon.

Brad is best known for his amazing smile, his unique sense of humor, his kind and caring heart of gold and his passion for fun in life. He was a devoted husband to Danielle, a loving and supportive father to Brittney and Brooklyn, a caring and proud grandfather for Karli, Erika, Brie and Baylee and a loyal and generous friend to all who knew him. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends. He will always be in our thoughts, and forever in our hearts.

The family will have a private burial service at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton, Oregon.

There will be a celebration of life get-together at the Warrenton Doogers Restaurant on Sunday, Sept. 30, 2018, from 1 to 3 p.m. The restaurant will be closed all day to allow family, friends and those who loved Brad the opportunity to attend. New York Yankees attire would be welcomed!

The Bradley K. Campbell Memorial Fund has been set up to help those students needing financial support to play sports at Warrenton High School.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Please sign our online guest book at caldwellsmortuary.com

Four Astoria men sentenced in Baker County poaching case

By JACK HEFFERNAN
The Daily Astorian

Four Astoria men were sentenced in Baker County after mule deer were poached near Lookout Mountain in 2015 and 2016.

Max Andersen, 22, Austin Barter, 21, and Chase Rusinovich, 21, each pleaded guilty to unlawful taking of wildlife in addition to other charges.

Jake Marinovich, 22, who was not found to have killed any deer and agreed to testify against the other three men as part of a plea deal, pleaded guilty to one count of harassing wildlife.

The plea deals and convictions took place from April through this month. Andersen, Barter and Rusinovich served 10 days, eight days and 15 days, respectively, in the Baker County Jail. They were also required to pay $7,500 each in restitution to the state Department of Fish and Wildlife.

All four men were ordered to serve probation and had hunting privileges suspended for between two and three years each.
