A night of art, music and Crocodile cheers

NEHALEM — Kate & The Crocodiles offer a fresh twist on classical and contemporary music with their show “L’Alchemie Musicale!” at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, at the North County Recreation District Performing Arts Center, 36155 9th St.

The show features Kate Morrison, a classically trained female vocalist; Craig

Bidondo, a soulful and energetic keyboardist; and two musicians from Pink Martini: the intuitive trumpeter Gavin Bondi, and the amazing drummer Brent Follis.

General admission is $18; reserved seating, $23; at the door, $23. All prices include a ticket fee. Online tickets are available at tickettomato.com.

Jam with Raizz the Barr at Labor Temple

ASTORIA — Wednesday nights are now the Labor Temple Bar’s jam nights hosted by local musicians Raizz the Barr, featuring Victoria Kingsbury.

Music runs 7 to 11 p.m., and all musicians are welcomed to join the house band or do solo performances. The music rolls through all genres, including classic rock, country western and garage-band styles. People dance and have a great time.

Raizz the Barr is highlighted 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 29, on the Labor Temple stage. No cover charge. Other band members include Jeff Carden, Flint Rice and local blues musician and KMUN radio DJ Joey Patenaude.
