OBITUARIES

Michael Earl Anderson Sherwood April 3, 1946 — Sept. 9, 2018

Michael Earl Anderson, age 72, passed away peacefully on Sept. 9, 2018, from cancer. Born April 3, 1946, in Portland, Mike was the son of Harvey and Dorothy (Raymond) Anderson. He grew up in Tillamook with his parents and three siblings, James, Diane (Corvington) and Charles.

After graduating from Tillamook High School in 1964, Mike enlisted in the Army National Guard for six

In 1972, he married Christine Blondo, also of Tillamook, and had two daughters, Jill and Jennifer. They divorced in 1982.

Mike's 33-year career for U.S. Bank took him to Tillamook, Astoria, Klamath Falls and Beaverton. He retired in 2001 as vice president district manager in Beaverton.

Mike, an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, clamming and camping, will always be admired for his adventurous spirit and relentless sense of humor. His notorious one-liners and playful antics will remain forever in our hearts.

He will lovingly be remembered by his partner, Joan; his daughters, Jill and Jennifer; his grandchildren, Gray and Lila; and Joan's daughters, Kimberly and Jennifer, and her grandchildren, Ryland, Ethan and

The family will host a celebration of life reception on Friday, Oct.

5, 2018, from 2 to 4 p.m., at Hayden's Lakefront Grill in Tualatin. Please visit springerandson.com for additional information.

Thomas Lee Chatterton Seaside

Jan. 29, 1937 — Aug. 5, 2018

29, 1937, and went home to be with our Lord on Aug. 5, 2018.

Thomas Lee Chatterton was born on Jan.

Tom moved to Seaside, Oregon, in 1992, and made a big impression on this wonderful city from day one. In 1992. Tom ran an ad in the local newspaper inviting individuals interested in forming a Unitarian Universalist Fellowship. Within a year, the Pacific Unitarian Universalist Fellowship was formed. Tom also had a deep spiritual passion and regularly attended various other churches, including the Catholic and Lutheran churches. His love for his fellow man and his four-legged friends were evident when he performed various services, including commitment ceremonies, weddings and blessings with animals.

Tom's love for Seaside was shown through his passion for landscaping as he the community. His ongoing care for all of his landscapes was a labor of love that went beyond the first day of their creation. He took > pride in maintaining this beauty so that others could enjoy it for many years to come.

By JACK HEFFERNAN The Daily Astorian

An Astoria man died after driving off the road and crashing into a parked log truck near Miles Crossing and Youngs River Road.

Michael Allen McKay, 39, was driving a 2008 Chevrolet Equinox just after 10 p.m. on Sept. 24 when the car veered off the road. Police did not notice any signs, such as skid marks, of how the crash occurred, said Paul Williams, chief deputy of the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office. Results of toxicology tests for drug and alcohol will likely not be available for months, Williams said.

Michael N. Pierce Cannon Beach

Oct. 2, 1949 — Sept. 18, 2018

Michael Pierce

Michael Pierce, of Cannon Beach, passed away at home on Sept. 18, 2018.

He was born in Portland in 1949 to Harold and Inge Pierce, and grew up in Portland with his brothers, David and Mark.

He graduated from Franklin High School, served in the Oregon Air National Guard, and earned a management degree from Linfield College.

An avid hiker and skier from an early age, he eagerly explored the Oregon Coast, Mount Hood and the Columbia Gorge. He also enjoyed exploring new technologies, science fiction, books and movies, and played baseball and other sports in his spare

In 1979, he married his lifetime friend and companion, Carol. With his two children from a prior marriage, and her son, they embarked on many new adventures.

After a few years working at Tektronix, he began a 29-year career with Wacker Siltronic. In that role, he traveled for business and pleasure around the world, from Germany to Japan, Canada to Czech Republic, Mauritius to Singapore very often accompanied by Carol.

He developed a close bond with many residents of Siltronic's headquarters town of Burghausen, Bavaria, where he and Carol lived for over four years, and visited regularly for over 25. He also made frequent extended stays in Arizona and beyond, visiting family.

A lifetime visitor and longtime homeowner in Cannon Beach, he retired full time to the town a decade ago. He was a famously devoted, energetic and fun-loving grandfather and uncle, enjoying his time with family most of all. He also enjoyed visiting with his many dear friends at the coffee shops of Cannon Beach and the golf courses of the North Coast sharing his optimistic good cheer with everyone he met.

An elder of the Cannon Beach Community Church, he regularly volunteered for the Cannon Beach Food Pantry. He remained an enthusiastic global traveler throughout his retirement — exploring the coasts of Scotland, Norway and Iceland as recently as August.

In addition to his wife, Carol, he is survived by his children and their families, Mike and Jenn Pierce (Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania), Amy and Craig Southwick (Portland), and Doug and Faith Deur (Arch Cape), as well as seven grandchildren, his mother (Phoenix, Arizona), and his two brothers and their families.

A celebration of life will be held at the Cannon Beach Community Church on Oct. 6, 2018, at 1 p.m.

Remembrances can be made to the Cannon Beach Food Pantry: cannonbeachfoodpantry.org or 503-440-8592.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the Alzheimer's Association in her honor.

Registration ahead for Great Oregon ShakeOut

The Daily Astorian

Businesses and community groups looking to practice their response to an earthquake are invited to register for The Great Oregon ShakeOut in October.

The event is an annual opportunity to practice "drop, cover and hold on" at 10:18 a.m. for 60 seconds on Oct. 18.

The event has also been organized to encourage individuals, communities, schools and other organizations to review and update emergency preparedness plans and supplies.

Registering helps local public safety agencies document participation. To register or learn more about how to take more preparedness steps, go to www.shakeout.org/oregon.
