Betty Jean Casavant, age 91, passed away on Oct. 11, 2018 at Neawanna by the Sea in Seaside, Oregon.

Betty was born May 10, 1927 in Valley, Nebraska, to Edith and Delbert Speer, the youngest of six brothers and sisters.

Betty grew up in Ovid, Colorado, and moved to California as a young woman. After many years of dedicated service with the civil service she retired from the Portland VA Medical Center and moved to Cannon Beach, Oregon, with her husband, Frank.

Betty served in the community endlessly, volunteering and giving of herself to help others. She volunteered in many capacities at the Community Church in Cannon Beach, and enjoyed being with her church family and Pastor David so much.

Betty is preceded in death by her husband, Francis (Frank) Casavant; son, Douglas; and granddaughter, Kimmy. Survivors include her daughter, Jerrilynn Randall, and son-in-law,

John; 12 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews, and great-nieces and nephews. She will be sorely missed by everyone in the family, and her endless family stories will live in our hearts forever.

Betty was a loving "mom" and friend to many. She knew no strangers, and was loved by all.

Betty loved traveling, the ocean, "party pants," reading, plays, old movies, friends and family. Her love of Christmas was contagious, and she shared the magic of the season with everyone.

Her family wishes to extend their greatest and warmest gratitude for the wonderful care given to her by everyone in the community, with a special thank you to Mindy, Pastor David, Linda and the wonderful staff at Neawanna.

Please join us in a celebration of life at noon Oct. 27 at Cannon Beach Community Church on East Washington Street. For those who wish, a donation can be made to the church, to the "Betty Casavant Fund."

Kaytlynn Natasha-Irene Kleber
Portland
Jan. 3, 2002 — Oct. 13, 2018

Kaytlynn Natasha-Irene Kleber passed away Oct. 13, 2018 in the loving arms of her parents, Penni and Forest Kleber. Born on Jan. 3, 2002, Kayti was a vibrant infant who delighted us all with her infectious smile. Kayti suffered a life-changing event on March 13, 2002, leaving her medically fragile.

Her parents devoted their lives to Kayti's care, and with Kayti's nurse, Carol Jarrett, at her side, she became Kayti's voice and stayed at her side for her entire education as Kayti attended Portland public schools. Kayti's presence in all the classrooms, throughout her education, impacted student awareness about children with disabilities, especially medically fragile children.

Kayti was greeted by her school staff and peers daily. In kindergarten, her friend, Tony, pushed her on her scooter on the playground. An amazing moment happened when she blinked "yes" in the Lewis Elementary hallway at a sweet random adult female and then, on her scooter with support, propelled herself down the hallway getting acknowledgment from Principal Tim Lauer; a beautiful moment where Kayti was in thriving mode (not just survival) with people enthused and respectful toward her.

Kayti respected her paraeducators by giving them her big beautiful blue-eyed focused attention. Kayti loved her friend, Angela, in second grade, and especially her friend, Joel. They used the iPad together. He would touch it, and she would attend to lightning bolt flashes on screen and crackly noise. They loved to listen to birds together.

She loved her friends, Nicholas and Abby, in middle school, and she especially loved being included with her exceptional friends in music classes. Kayti's fondest moments were attending guitar class, choir and the orchestra class, where the music could be seen lighting up in her eyes.

Throughout Kayti's life, her younger brother, Nathan, became her protector, and always put his sister first. Kayti's parents always made sure she was accepted, loved and able to participate in all-inclusive activities at school and their community.

As we celebrate this month by recognizing disability awareness, the family would like us all to gather and support other parents with medically fragile children. Every day they persevere, knowing that each moment could be the last, yet they don't relish in that thought, and love their child wholeheartedly, grateful to hold and hear each breath, grateful that their presence impacts everyone.

Her nurse, Carol, was Kayti's voice, and stayed at her side for her entire education.

Kayti is survived by her parents, Forest and Penni Kleber; her younger brother, Nathan; grandparents, Cheryl Cochran, Steve Aiken, Joan and Charlie Duncan, and Orchid and Randy Dunn; her great-grandmother, Ruth Shaner; great-grandfather, Dale Aiken; great aunts, Carla Perry, Gina Ross and Suzanne Getty; and great uncles, Scott Thomas, David Thomas and Brian Yancey.

Aunties, Tarin Cochran, Stacy Yancey, Kim Wright, Sky Villiard, Lynsey McFadden, Sheleni Quashinck and Sharian Gauthier, and Uncle Stephen Aiken, loved her with all their hearts. She was surrounded by the adoration of her cousins, Melissa Perry, Isaac Betts, Elijah Betts, Weston Canessa, Chloe Canessa, Kaison Moelnhour, Joey Graves, Kyras Graves, Kaylen Wright and many more! Kayti's great-grandparents who have since passed, Wes Shaner, Jean Cranor, Marjorie and Wilber Scheibner, adored Kayti too.

Kaytlynn brought to this world the simple joys of love and compassion; the awareness that any medically fragile child can make a difference by igniting a spirit of living, no matter what hardships are faced. That love and commitment make the world a better place, and now that she is in peace, free from her shell, she dances and sings over us, making us hold her memory to be embraced and respected by all, every minute of our lives.

Please join us in celebrating Kayti's inspiring life on Saturday, Nov. 10, at St. Augustana Church, 2710 N.E. 14th Ave. in Portland, Oregon, officiated by Mark Knutson, at 1 p.m., followed by a reception in Kayti's honor.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to United Cerebral Palsy Foundation, who sponsored Kayti and her family multiple times over the last 16 years.
