A JAZZY
FRIDAY NIGHT

MANZANITA — Jazz singer and musician Jean Mann comes to the North Coast for an intimate concert 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 19, at the Hoffman Center for the Arts, 594 Laneda Ave. Admission is $10

Since 2000, the singer-songwriter has played locally, regionally and nationally. In 2014, she took her songs to Europe, dazzling the masses in France, Belgium, Germany and The Netherlands.

AERIAL RUIN,
DEEP HAVEN PLAYS
CHOPHOUSE

ASTORIA — Charlie's Chophouse welcomes Portland band Aerial Ruin at 10 p.m. Friday, Oct. 19, followed by Astoria's own Deep Haven, a heavy rock trio playing their very first show at 11 p.m.

Admission is $5. This show is for attendees 21 and older.

Aerial Ruin is the primarily acoustic solo project of Erik Moggridge whose "richly evocative dark folk style makes for a head-in-hand listening experience," according to the metal blog Invisible Oranges.

Charlie's Chophouse is at 1313 Marine Drive.
