NOTICE: Oregon Landscape Contractors Law (ORS 671) requires all businesses that advertise landscape contracting services be licensed with the Landscape Contractors Board. This 4-digit number assures the business has a bond, insurance and an associated individual contractor who has fulfilled the testing and experience requirements for licensure. For your protection call (503)378-5909 or use our web site: www.lcb.state.or.us to check license status before contracting with the business. Persons doing landscape maintenance do not require a LCB license.

HAVING storage problems? Why not sell no-longer-used items with a fastworking classified ad?

Oregon state law requires anyone who contracts for construction work to be licensed with the Construction Contractors Board. An active license means the contractor is bonded and insured. Verify the contractor's CCB license through the CCB Consumer Website www.hirelicensedcontractors.com

Traveling historian keeps it rail

SEASIDE — Oregon's traveling historian, Darrell Jabin, will share his film "Rail History of Oregon: It Changed Everything" and discuss the impact of Oregon's trains, streetcars and trolleys on Oregon history at the Seaside Museum's next History & Hops event.

The event takes place 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 25, at the Seaside Brewing Co., 851 Broadway St.

Some say Ben Holladay built Seaside House so he could cash in on the visitors coming to the beach, mainly by train. Others say Holladay worked to get train access to the beach so he would have customers for his resort. Though train access to Seaside ceased in 1952, Holladay, Seaside and trains are forever connected.

A high-flutin' activity

SEASIDE — Learn to play the Native American flute with Peter Ali at the Seaside Public Library, 1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 3. Sign up at the circulation desk.
