Halloween concert benefits Performing Arts Center

The Daily Astorian

Four Shillings Short performs a Samhain/Halloween concert at the Clatsop Community College Performing Arts Center at 7 p.m. tonight.

Admission is $15 general, $10 for seniors and students. Kids under 13 get in free.

This husband-wife duo plays traditional music from Celtic lands, medieval and Renaissance Europe, India and the Americas on a collection of world instruments.

A Samhain concert combines music, poetry, stories and folklore to celebrate the ancient Celtic bonfire festival. Many modern-day harvest celebrations and customs are based on this festival, including ghost stories, Halloween costumes, bobbing for apples and the jack-o'-lantern.

The Performing Arts Center is at 588 16th St.

Jerry Ferguson Knappa
March 27, 1939 — Oct. 22, 2018

On Monday, Oct. 22, 2018, Jerry Ferguson, loving husband and father of four, passed away at the age of 79. Jerry passed away at home surrounded by his family.

Jerry was born on March 27, 1939, in Dupree, South Dakota, to Jeremiah Ferguson and Alma Smock. Jerry lived most of his life in Knappa, Oregon, and graduated from Knappa High School in 1957. After high school, Jerry served briefly in the National Guard, stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington.

On June 7, 1958, Jerry married Janice Elliott, also of Knappa. They raised one daughter, Debbie, and three sons, Dean, Dana and Darrel.

Jerry worked as a commercial fisherman, mechanic, boat builder, and truck driver, spending many of his summers catching red salmon in Bristol Bay. In his younger years, he raced super stock cars at Lyon's drag strip in Long Beach, California. During that time he raced his 1958 Chevy and won the Winter Nationals.

Jerry was a hard worker, and installed a strong work ethic in his children and grandchildren. He will be remembered for his love of boat building, hunting, fishing and clam digging. He also loved coaching youth sports, playing cribbage, and handing out "whisker rubs" to his grandchildren!

Jerry is survived by his wife, Janice; his daughter, Debbie; two sons, Dean and Dana; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Jerry was preceded in death by his son, Darrel.

A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27, at Knappa Prairie Cemetery, 92868 Knappa Dock Road, Astoria, Oregon.

A celebration of life will be held at the Svensen Grange Hall, at Svensen crossing, at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27.

In lieu of flowers please donate to the Alzheimer's Association of Oregon (alz.org/orswwa), or Salmon For All (salmonforall.org) or Knappa Summer Recreation. Self-addressed envelopes for all three associations will be available at the celebration of life.

Garda Marie Fremstad Page
Springfield
June 14, 1942 — Oct. 19, 2018

On Oct. 19, 2018, Garda Marie Fremstad Page, our sister, aunt and friend passed away at her home in Springfield, Oregon.

Garda was born on June 14, 1942, in Astoria, Oregon, to Fridtjof and Agnes (England) Fremstad. After graduating from Astoria High School, she attended the University of Oregon, earning a bachelor's degree. Upon completion of her degree, Garda remained in Springfield and worked for Peace Health for 40 years in a number of capacities; behavioral health, the Center for Healthcare Improvement, and most recently as a systems analyst.

For a number of years, Garda was president of the Ethos Design Co. She was a member of the Central Coast British Car Club, where she shared her love of MG's. In addition, she was a member of First Lutheran Church. Always a faithful Ducks fan, she followed all sports — men's and women's.

She enjoyed spending time with her many friends who spanned the U.S. Especially dear to her were the times spent at her place in Florence, on the Pacific Coast that she so loved.

Garda is survived by her brother, Fredrik (Helene) Fremstad, and her very loved nephews, Kristian (Jennifer) Fremstad, Erik (Melissa) Fremstad and Stig (Stephanie) Fremstad. In addition, she was a great-aunt to Annik, Fridtjof and Askel Fremstad, and cousin to Jon Englund and Suzanne Fleck. Other distant members of her family reside in Norway and Sweden.

No service is planned.
