Indonesia plane crash kills all 189 on board

Associated Press

JAKARTA, Indonesia — Rescuers in inflatable boats retrieved human remains, pieces of aircraft and personal belongings from the Java Sea today after a new-generation Boeing jet operated by an Indonesian budget airline crashed minutes after take-off, killing all 189 people on board.

Distraught family members struggled to comprehend the sudden loss of loved ones in the crash of the 2-month-old Lion Air plane with experienced pilots in fine weather.

They gathered at crisis centers set up by the authorities at airports, hoping desperately for a miracle. But a top search official, citing the condition of the remains recovered, said no survivors are expected.

The disaster is a setback for Indonesia's airline industry, which just emerged from decadelong bans by the European Union and the U.S. over safety concerns.

President Joko Widodo ordered an investigation and urged Indonesians to "keep on praying."

The crash of the Boeing 737 Max 8 is the latest in a series of tragedies that have struck Indonesia this year, including earthquakes and a tsunami that killed several thousand people.

An air transport official, Novie Riyanto, said the flight was cleared to return to Jakarta after the pilot made a "return to base" request two to three minutes after taking off. It plunged into the sea about 10 minutes later. Weather conditions were normal but the plane, which Lion Air received in August, had experienced an unspecified technical issue on its previous flight.

Relatives and friends wept, prayed and hugged each other as they waited at Jakarta's airport and at Pangkal Pinang's airport on Bangka island off Sumatra where the flight was headed. Some including Indonesian Finance Minister Sri Mulyani headed to the search and rescue agency's headquarters in Jakarta for information. About 20 ministry staff were on the flight.

Richard 'Dick' Dale Myer Silverton Sept. 4, 1951 — Oct. 18, 2018

Richard "Dick" Dale Myer passed peacefully on to be with his Lord at his home in Silverton on the morning of Oct. 18, 2018 after a valiant struggle with cancer. Dick will be remembered for his love of his family, his dedication to Christ and managing his three towing companies.

Dick was born on Sept. 4, 1951 to Roland and Roberta (Jean) Myer in Fresno, California. He was the youngest of five children. Dick graduated from South Salem High School in 1970, before moving to Astoria, where he married in 1972 to Nancy Roberts. He had various jobs, including at the Wauna Paper Mill in Westport, Oregon. After quitting work at Wauna, he moved his family to Brookings and established Just Give a Call Home Auto Service.

In 1991, he divorced and returned to Astoria. In 1992, he met Janet Wright, his partner of 26 years when she worked for Warrenton. During this time, he established his first towing company, All-Around Towing, towing for the Oregon State Police, Clatsop County Sheriff's Office, Seaside and Warrenton. In 1999, he moved his company to Salem, establishing two additional towing companies, A-1 Classic Towing and Willamette Valley Towing, towing for Woodburn, Mount Angel, OSP and the Marion County Sheriff's Office.

Richard 'Dick' Dale Myer

Some of Dick's many interests included going to his and Janet's beach house in Gearhart, visiting North Coast friends he knew when he lived there years ago. He also loved jet skiing, all-terrain vehicle trips and listening to music. He loved cars, especially his BMW convertible, and talking with friends he made at his favorite restaurant. He was always up for adventure and his grandkids remember him as a "fun" grandpa. He was ornery and entertaining, an individual like no other.

Dick is survived by his loving partner, Janet Wright; his sons, Adam, Matthew (Jodie) and Andrew (Melissa); daughter, Maryanne (Josh) Gobble; siblings, Dan, Don and Darlene (Don) Basket; former spouse, Nancy (Roberts) Myer; and numerous grandchildren.

He is preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Dave, and his son, Anthony.

Special thanks to the dedicated staff of Hospice Care of the Northwest. They were compassionate and caring in his final days. A special thank you to the staff and owners of the 310 Water Restaurant in Silverton who made food that he could eat as he went through chemotherapy, even when it wasn't on the menu. One of his favorites was Rice-a-Roni. Also, thanks to all of the people he enjoyed seeing and conversing with when he went to 310 Water.

ON THE RECORD

CORRECTIONS

Wrong date and time: A Trunk or Treat event hosted by North Coast Family Fellowship takes place at 4 to 6 p.m. Wednesday, not Monday, as printed in Coast Weekend and Seaside Signal calendars.

Wrong owner: The now-closed Utopia Dessert and Coffeehouse in southeast Portland was opened by Joanne Perkins. A Mouth of the Columbia review in the Thursday Coast Weekend said the owner was Connie Calcagno.

Both Perkins and Calcagno opened Yolk in Manzanita earlier this year. The article suggested it was primarily Calcagno's project.
