Trail's End Gallery will have a new show opening with a reception honoring Kathy Samsel, a multi-media artist displaying her photography.

At this summer's Trail's End Annual Judged Show, Samsel took first place in the photography division and Best in Show for her photo of Haleakala.

Ask Samsel questions you might have about her artistic path. The public is welcome to browse the entry gallery as well as the main one, as it holds giclee, watercolors, acrylics, photography, collage, cards and gifts.
