

A soirée with Sally Lackaff, 'Sarah's Circus' and cider

CANNON BEACH — Sally Lackaff returns to her old stomping grounds for a solstice soirée at Jupiter's Books, 3 to 6 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 22, in Cannon Beach.

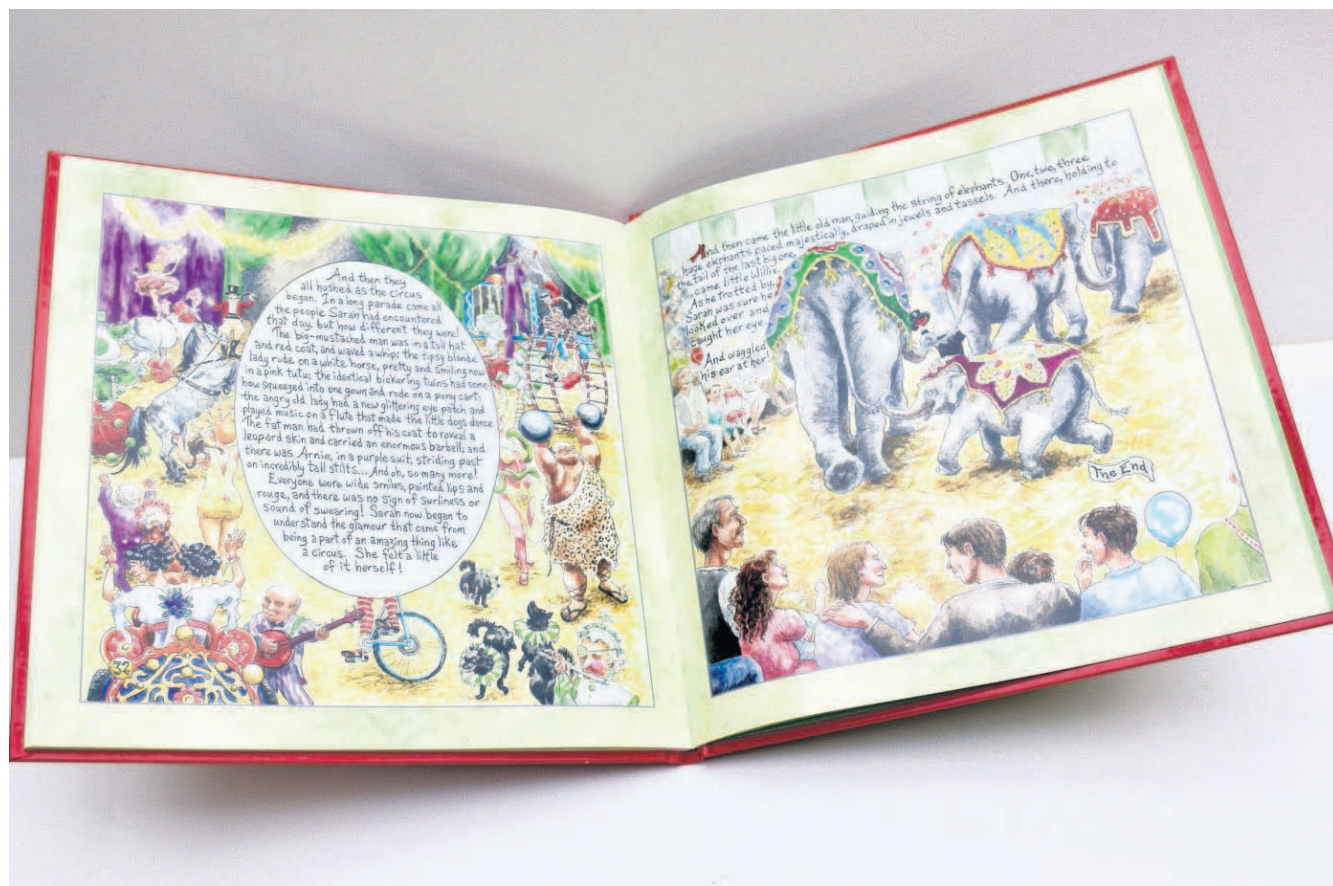

Lights will shine on "Sarah's Circus," her new book for children of all ages that she illustrated and co-authored with the late, much-loved Robert "Jake" Jacob of Astoria.

Come raise a mug of hot cider with Lackaff and friends. "Call it vespers," she says.

The bookstore is at 244 N. Spruce St., Cannon Beach.

A Christmas tree glows brightly at the Cannon Beach History Center & Museum.

CANNON BEACH — Looking for an escape over the holiday weekend? Join the Cannon Beach History Center & Museum's staff and board of directors for an all-day event for kids and adults Saturday, Dec. 22.

The museum will host an all-day hot chocolate bar. We're talking whipped cream, marshmallows, chocolate nibs and more. The no-host treat bar will also have hot apple cider, Sleepy Monk coffee and sparkling cider.

Arts and crafts run from noon to 3 p.m. The museum will also offer a children's story time at noon and face painting from 1 to 3 p.m. Instead of the usual Santa, we'll have a holiday-themed photo booth and some of Santa's helpers nearby. Blitzen, Donner, Comet and Cupid will be taking time from their busy schedules to be at the museum. Rudolph might even stop by!

This event is free and open to the public.

The museum, 1387 S. Spruce St., will be open 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. that day. You can purchase that last-minute something for the person who loves history or local gifts.

The museum will be closed Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 24 and 25.
