A master of fine-art photography unveils new work in Cannon Beach

CANNON BEACH — Christopher Burkett, an Oregon master of fine-art photography, unveils a new portfolio at Northwest By Northwest Gallery through January 2019.

This year, Burkett was featured on the PBS Weekend NewsHour. The program's focus was on the artist's genius and commitment to fine-art film/darkroom photography skills honed by Burkett's friendship with celebrated photographer Ansel Adams.

Northwest By Northwest, 232 N. Spruce St., Cannon Beach, has represented Burkett for three decades.

Submit your 'Secret Astoria' for AVA, RiverSea show

ASTORIA — Astoria Visual Arts seeks artists for a members' exhibit at RiverSea Gallery, Saturday, Jan. 12, through Tuesday, Feb 5. Artwork must explore the theme "My Secret Astoria." All media are welcome.

Current members are invited to submit one to three pieces to RiverSea from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday or Monday, Jan. 6 or 7. Artwork must not exceed 36 inches wide and must be for sale.

As wall space is limited, Betsy Millard, executive director of the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum, will select artwork to be included in the exhibit. The opening reception will take place during Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk, 5 to 8 p.m. Jan. 12.

A portion of sales will support AVA's Miss Bea Fund for enhanced, community-based arts learning in our area high schools.

For more information about AVA, visit astoriavisualarts.org. For questions, contact AVA Executive Director Annie Eskelin at astoriavisualarts@gmail.com or 503-791-0575.

RiverSea Gallery is at 1160 Commercial St.
