PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Long Beach Peninsula is uniquely situated where the Columbia meets the Pacific. Debris washes in from the river and ocean as well as what is left behind by beachgoers. The GrassRoots Garbage Gang hold three major cleanups annually. Winter storms bring in all kinds of interesting debris to be collected during the January cleanup we hold a spring cleanup and the 5th of July is our big cleanup with record-breaking amounts of trash collected. The GrassRoots Garbage Gang is a 501 c3. we rely on the support from our community and the hundreds of volunteers that show up to clean the Peninsula's 28-mile beach. We support any and all efforts by organizations various private groups and individuals who want to hold cleanups throughout the year.

VOLUNTEER

To volunteer simply show up at any major beach approach January 26th, April 20th, and July 5th at 9:30 a.m. to sign in and be sure to stop by the community soup feed following. We are always looking for groups to adopt sections of beach.
