

Ilwaco troupe seeks cast for 'HMS Pinafore'

ILWACO, WASH. — Peninsula Players are looking for a dozen or so actors and singers to set sail on a musical in March.

Auditions for "HMS Pinafore" will take place 6 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 8 and 9, at the River City Playhouse, 127

Lake St., Ilwaco.

Director Rita Smith is looking for a cast of about 12, with all ages, including children and "mature adults."

The musical comedy, subtitled "The Lass That Loved a Sailor," is an adaptation of the Gilbert and Sullivan work. It features a love story and a comic examination of the social classes.

The show will be performed March 29 through April 14.

For details, contact Smith at 360-665-0028 or email raskimball@gmail.com.

During Restaurant Month, dine to make a difference

LONG BEACH PENINSULA — Restaurants in Long Beach, Ilwaco and Seaview, Wash., will once again participate in Dining to Make a Difference.

During Restaurant Month 2019 on the Long Beach Peninsula, eateries will offer 3-for-$33 dinners, Sundays through Thursdays, throughout January. The promotion will benefit the local Boys & Girls Club.

Diners who mention the promotion will enjoy a three-course meal at a great value while supporting local youth programs and can up their contribution by staying at participating lodging partners.

Restaurants participating in Dining to Make a Difference are 42nd Street Cafe & Bistro, Galletti's Spaghetti House, Lost Roo, Pickled Fish, the Pub at Shelburne Hotel, Salt Pub & Grub and The Depot Restaurant.

Participating lodging includes Adrift Hotel, Enchanted Cottages, Inn at Discovery Coast, Salt Hotel and Shelburne Hotel.

The restaurants and hotels have pledged 10 percent of proceeds to the Boys & Girls Club when participants mention the promo code DMD2019 when dining or making a lodging reservation.

For details, visit lbp-food.com. For destination information and trip planning, call the Long Beach Peninsula Visitors Bureau at 360-642-2400 or access visitlongbeachpeninsula.com.
