7. AVA Gallery

375 11th St.

Teresa Robinett will be showing recent figurative paintings that incorporate primal art elements to explore narratives about female identity.

Most of the subjects in this group of paintings are from childhood, where, she says, "All of our stories begin." Masks and costumes have the power to create a new identity and a new narrative.

8. Oscar d'Masai Studio & Gallery

395 11th St.

Stop by and visit with the artist in his studio. Landscapes, portraits and abstracts for purchase.

9. Cargo

240 11th Street

It's rainy and cold outside. We have lots of bowls for soup scarves to stay warm and books to read by the fire.

10. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

The talented Ryan Dobrowski, visual artist as well as drummer to the indie folk band Blind Pilot, returns with his third solo exhibition at Imogen. For this series, Dobrowski focuses entirely on landscape, not so much in reference to direct place but rather the sense of discovery that comes from quiet and solitude within the landscape.

11. KALA

1017 Marine Drive

Presenting new paintings by

'Palapa,' an acrylic painting by Thron Riggs, on view at Tempo Gallery.

Oscar Nelson. He has produced an abundance of abstract oil paintings on canvas, in addition to exploring with spray paint medium. Known throughout the Astoria community as the founding owner of Sweet Relief, Nelson describes his creative process as manic and wild, exploring the intersection of spirituality, impermanence and the mysterious.

12. Astoria Vintage Hardware

1162 Marine Drive

We are excited to host Lonely Crow Forge as the January Pop-Up. David Fondren, artisan blacksmith, has lived most of his life in the PNW. After a seven-year apprenticeship, Fondren has been "smithing" in his own shop for two years. The pop-up will be filled with aesthetically pleasing pieces of custom metal art created with joy.

13. Paul Polson Gallery

100 10th St.

Paul has moved an inflatable non-holiday theme into his gallery along with abstract oil paintings in combination with realistic images. Some recently painted work along with a few favorites from past shows. The back of the gallery will feature a mural in progress.

14. McVarish Gallery

160 10th St.

Featuring paintings of Astoria by native Brandon Policky. His keen rendering skill combines with a sharp wit and appreciation of popular and pulp culture. Behind that, The Secret Gallery will present "Tears of a Clown," a group show featuring everything clown. All clowns are welcome.

This will open Second Saturday in conjunction with a block-wide celebration of the circus, starting at WineKraft at the base of 10th Street and the Paul Paulson Gallery, presenting new work, inflatable sculpture and red noses.

15. Smoked Bones BBQ

Pier 11 (accessible via 10th Street)

The Art of Food: A benefit show for filling empty bellies, featuring art and photography of all varieties from numerous local artists. Enter from 10th Street pier or follow the blue arrows!

16. WineKraft

80 10th St. (Pier 11)

Join us on Pier 11! Featuring work from six local artists as well as live music starting around 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. We are the perfect location for you to wrap up your art walking!

'Ice Cream Social,' acrylic on panel, by Morrison Pierce, on view at McVarish Gallery.
