

After the ceremony, the celebration was moved to the Rockaway Beach City Hall and a Spotify playlist filled with Phil and Brenna's favorite songs provided the perfect soundtrack for the equally intimate reception that followed. The highlight was a delicious meal catered by Dough Dough Bakery, which met the couple's criteria of serving primarily locally sourced, organic, fresh food. Event consultant Doug Niblack worked with them to incorporate a number of unique features into both the meal and the service. Tables were decorated with brightly colored fresh citrus and ground cherries. Dishes featured plenty of foraged and local products. The reception also featured a special ceremony with Jun tea, a honey-fermented beverage, made with a special 800-year-old scoby, which was "really unique," Brenna said.

Following their wedding, Brenna and Phil took off at 1 a.m. to drive to Portland and catch a flight to Costa Rica for their honeymoon. ❤️

"The location was magical, all of our guests were blown away by the natural beauty."
