Boarding teams with the Coast Guard cutter Alert, background, seized more than 5,700 pounds of cocaine from two suspected drug-smuggling vessels intercepted during a two-month patrol in the Pacific Ocean off the coast of Central and South America.

Cutter Alert returns after two-month patrol

The Daily Astorian

The Coast Guard cutter Alert returned to Astoria on Friday after a two-month patrol during which it seized more than 5,700 pounds of cocaine and caught seven suspected drug traffickers, according to the agency.

The cocaine seizure, estimated at more than $83 million in street value, came from two separate suspected drug-smuggling boats the Alert's crew intercepted. The Alert received support from the Navy, Customs and Border Protection and Coast Guard air crews that provided reconnaissance.

"This disrupts key funding sources for these dangerous criminal networks and diminishes their influence in the Western Hemisphere," Adm. Karl Schultz, the commandant of the Coast Guard, said in a news release.

A tactical squadron aboard an MH-65 Dolphin helicopter deployed on the Alert to help pursue and intercept boats.

The Alert's deployment began in early December, lasting through the holidays and the longest government shutdown in U.S. history.

"We are fortunate to have such a high-spirited crew, happily celebrating Christmas and New Year's Eve together, at sea for 32 days between liberty stops," Cmdr. Tobias Reid, Alert's commanding officer, said in the news release. "Between the holidays, two very interesting smuggling cases and our equator-crossing ceremony, we had a very full and satisfying patrol.

"But, above all, we are thankful for the incredible generosity from the Astoria, Warrenton, Hammond and Seaside communities who provide such tremendous support to our families while we were on patrol."

Committee members sought for county comprehensive plan update

The Daily Astorian

Clatsop County is looking for people to join citizen advisory committees as part of a two-year project to update the county's six community plans and comprehensive plan.

Participants would be advising staff and providing recommendations regarding the county's guiding planning documents.

The comprehensive plan represents the long-term land use vision for the county and sets planning policies that guide county actions regarding land use, recreational amenities, transportation networks, farm and forest lands, natural resources and housing. This will be the first time the comprehensive plan has been updated since its original adoption in 1979.

Forms are available from the county manager's office at 800 Exchange St., Suite 410, in Astoria, or at the county website, www.co.clatsop.or.us. Applications are due by 4 p.m. on March 1.

OBITUARIES

Shirley Marie Tadei

Astoria

June 25, 1933 — Jan. 29, 2019

Sadly, with heavy hearts, we are grieving the loss of our sweet, angelic, eloquent, wife, mother and grandmother, Shirley Marie Tadei, who passed away Jan. 29, 2019.

Shirley was born June 25, 1933, in Astoria, Oregon, to Finnish immigrants John and Karoline Osmus, the youngest of six children, Ruth, Leonard, Doris, Helen and Charles, all of whom preceded her in death.

In 1950, while in high school, she met Vince Tadei, who survives her; they went on to be married in May 1952. She was a loving, devoted mother to 10 children, and is survived by daughters Tricia, LouAnn, Juli (Tom), Mary, Lisa and Sue, and sons Peter, Paul (Leslie) and Joe (Heather). Daughter Pamela preceded her in death in 2008.

She was active in St. Mary, Star of the Sea Church, National Association of Letter Carriers Auxiliary and Vasa Order of America, and liked volunteering at the annual Scandinavian festival. She enjoyed many interests, including travel, shopping, "coffee an," bingo, sewing, time at the beach, family gatherings and frequent outings with lifelong best friend, Laurel Carlson.

Shirley enjoyed reminiscing about her Finnish heritage, and her days growing up in the Alameda neighborhood of Uniontown. Most important to her was spending time with her 21 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

A private service and burial will take place, with a celebration of life to be announced at a later date.

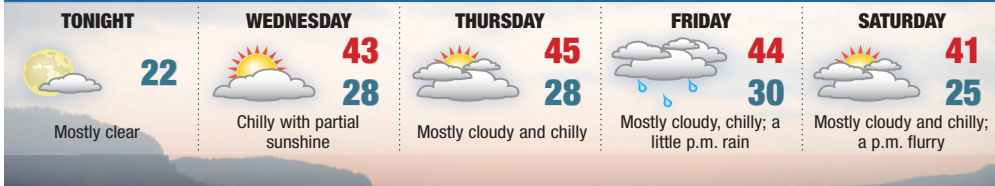

A public visitation will be open on Thursday, Feb. 7 from 1 to 3 p.m. at Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in memory of Shirley to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the Astoria Scandinavian Heritage Association, or Doernbecher Children's Hospital.

TOMORROW'S NATIONAL WEATHER

Vernon G. Olson

Puget Island, Washington

Sept. 19, 1927 — Jan. 28, 2019

Vernon G. Olson, 91, of Cathlamet (Puget Island), Washington, died on Jan. 28 at St. John's Medical Center in Longview, Washington.

He was born in Longview on Sept. 19, 1927, to Selmar "Sam" and Hilda (Nordine) Olson. The family moved from Ryderwood to Cathlamet when he was young, living at Crown Zellerbach family camp in the Elochoman Valley, then moving to Puget Island. Vern lived in the family home on Puget Island for 75 years.

In 1945, he graduated from Wahkiakum High School and attended Oregon State University. He enjoyed playing on the town baseball and basketball teams, even playing on the championship team in the early 1950s and grange softball.

He worked at the Wauna Lumber Mill before going to work at Danton-Russell Mill in Warrenton, where he retired in 1989, spending 45 years in the lumber industry.

In the spring and summer he loved gardening, mixed with a love of fishing for springers, steelhead and salmon. But his greatest joy in life was being an avid Husky fan. He attended University of Washington

Huskies games at the Rose Bowl twice in Pasadena, California. He and his sister, Jean, have had season tickets to watch the Huskies since 1948, and he was a member of the U of W Tyee Club. He attended Our Savior Lutheran Church.

Vern is survived by his sister, Jean Horman (Ron); a nephew, Larry Horman (Lesley); great-nephews, Joe Jackson (Cortney), Larry Horman II (Taylor), Gage and Cy Horman and Micah Jackson (Dyani); great-niece, Shelly Fish (Jayson) and children; great-nieces, Maris Jackson and Amy and Talon Horman; and many cousins.

A private interment will take place at Greenwood Cemetery, and a celebration of life will be announced in March.

Dowling Funeral Home of Cathlamet is in charge of arrangements.
