

At Casino Night, the roaring '20s return

ASTORIA — Get ready for a Roaring Good Time at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 16, at the Heritage Museum.

The Clatsop County Historical Society's annual Roaring 20s Speakeasy Casino Night promises a fun time for all. There will be games of Black Jack, Roulette, Craps, and for an additional fee, Texas Hold 'em poker.

Prizes for top chip holders and best 1920s costume will be awarded at the end of the night.

Entry is $15 for an individual, $25 for a couple. Get in on the action at the Texas Hold 'em tournament for an additional buy-in of $30, $40 or $50 (call for details).

The museum is at Exchange and 16th streets.

All proceeds support the Clatsop County Historical Society, a non-profit educational organization dedicated to preserving and presenting the history of Clatsop County and the surrounding area.

Come to the 'Astorian Cabaret,' old chum!

ASTORIA — The TEN-FIFTEEN series, created by Pier Pressure Productions, will make its fifth appearance in the presently-under-construction performance space at 1015 Commercial St.

The Pier returns to its original format on Friday,

Feb. 15, with two performances of "An Astorian Cabaret" at 10:15 a.m. and 10:15 p.m.

Mick Alderman, Rhonda Alderman, Lori Honl, Slab Slabinski, Jordan Griffin, Amber Blecha, Nancy Montgomery, Karen Bain, Bill Ham and Richard Bowman will perform for this month's fundraiser designed to showcase the versatility of, and to stimulate interest in, the future home of Astoria's black box theater.

This is a one-day-only event. Donations are welcome.

'Robin Hood,' a merry musical adventure, opens Saturday

ASTORIA — The Astor Street Opry Company presents its annual Children's Theatre production with performances of "Robin Hood: The Musical."

The show is produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Englewood, Colorado, and directed by Astor Street Opry Company veteran Patricia VonVintage.

Robin Hood is the outlaw of Sherwood Forest, leading a merry life with his followers. Anyone needing a place to live or food to eat is welcome in the greenwood. Impoverished citizens led by Robin are waging a battle against the evil Prince John. He has taken the place of King Richard the Lion-Hearted, who has gone on a crusade. Lady Merle of Cornwall, however, hopes to make John more acceptable to the people of England by forcing Maid Marian, Robin's childhood sweetheart, to marry the Prince. It's up to Robin to stop the marriage, defeat a nasty sheriff and secure Nottingham for the king's return.

Performances are 2 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, Feb. 16, through March 3. Tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for children 12 and under. They are available at asocplay.com.
