

Photos by Colin Murphey/The Daily Astorian

The festival draws hundreds of people to Astoria every year.

Festival of Dark Arts envelops Astoria

By COLIN MURPHEY
The Daily Astorian

Hundreds of people gathered in downtown Astoria on Saturday at the Fort George Brewery campus for the annual Festival of Dark Arts. The event featured food vendors, live music, artists, a magician, belly dancers and, of course, a wide array of dark beers on tap.

Alana Robbie tattoos a customer.

Dave Gonzalez works on a metal sculpture.

Jessamyn Grace, left, and Andrea Mazzarella perform a dance routine.

Fire dancers entertain the crowd toward the end of the night's festivities.