

THE NEW YORK TIMES MAGAZINE CROSSWORD

D.J.'S SPINNIN'

By Tony Orbach and Andrea Carla Michaels

Answers on Page 19

Tony Orbach is a construction manager and musician in Upper Montclair, N.J. Andrea Carla Michaels is a professional namer (of companies and products) in San Francisco. They worked together on this puzzle by email — bouncing theme ideas, crossword fill and clues back and forth. Tony sneaked in Andrea's favorite word at 75-Down. (Note her initials.) This is their second collaboration for The Times. — W.S.

Sedona Fire Band headlines night of music, poetry and storytelling

NEHALEM — The Sedona Fire Band will perform at St. Catherine's Episcopal Church, 36335 N. Highway 101, at 7 p.m. Saturday, March 9, at the Songs & Meaning Event.

The seven-piece group plays folk, blues, rock and world fusion.

This will be a night of music, poetry and storytelling. Sedona Fire Band will perform originals and inspiring covers.

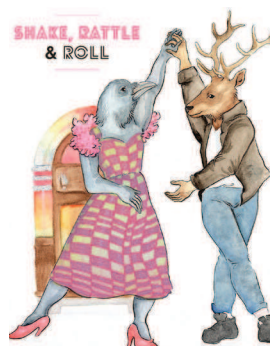

The event also features guest musicians: guitarist Carl

McLaughlin and trumpeter Scott Wagner.

In addition, there will be poetry and storytelling from Riverbend Players Tom Cocklin, Linda Makohon, Brian McMahon, Betsy McMahon, Mike Sims, Jeff Slamal and Linda Wiebenson, plus Christina Wilson and Gary Seelig.

Tickets will be sold at the door: $10 per person, $15 per couple. For extra comfortable seating, we suggest bringing a seat cushion.

ARCH CAPE — Dust off your poodle skirt and rub your lucky charm! The Fire Mountain Raffle Party takes place 5:30 to 9 p.m. Saturday, March 16, at the Old Nehalem Fire Hall with live music by Seattle-area band Hot Club Sandwich. The raffle drawing is at 8:30 p.m.

The grand-prize winner receives a $4,000 trip to a destination of their choice. The second-place prize is a stay at North Fork 53. Third-place is an Epic Surf Package by Oregon Surf Adventures that includes lessons for two.

One raffle ticket is all you need to gain entry into the event — for attendees ages 21 years and older — which includes lively dancing and a chance to win one of three prizes. The dance party also includes gourmet food and a no-host (cash) bar. This ticket is good for admittance for two.

Tickets are $40 each, or three for $100, with a limit of 500 tickets for sale. They can be purchased from a Fire Mountain parent or online at firemountainraffle2019.eventbrite.com.

Fire Mountain School is an independent school dedicated to assisting children in their ongoing work of exploring and making sense of the world. The school serves preschool-aged children through fourth grade.
