Enter the Portland Darkroom at LightBox

ASTORIA — LightBox Photographic Gallery opens "The Portland Darkroom Exhibit" with an opening artists' reception 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, March 9.

The beauty of the fiber silver gelatin print is one of LightBox's loves. In this exhibit, the gallery celebrates the members of the Portland Darkroom and their dedication to the art of the Silver Gelatin Process.

The Portland Darkroom is a member-supported community space for the practice of analog photography.

The gallery will also be showing many other fine silver gelatin prints from Northwest photographers. The exhibit runs through Tuesday, April 9.

LightBox is at 1045 Marine Drive.

Create a mini bird portrait in Seaside

SEASIDE — Like to draw? Like birds? Sign up for Seaside Public Library's Mini Bird Drawing Class with local artist and illustrator Dorota Haber-Lehigh.

Sponsored by Friends of the Seaside Library, the workshop takes place 1 p.m. Saturday, March 9. You must sign up for this class and can do so at the circulation desk or by phone.

Participants will create a mini bird portrait using colored pencils on walnut ink paper. Folks in the class will begin with a foundation sketch, then learn how to transfer their drawing and layer gentle colors using colored pencils.

There will be the option to use watercolor or gouache as a foundation for the bird, so bring a set of watercolors or gouache if you already have one. All other materials will be provided. Please bring reference photos of the bird you intend to draw.

The library is at 1131 Broadway St. For more information, call 503-738-6742 or visit seasidelibrary.org.
