

Seaside

FIRST SATURDAY

ART WALK

April

6

5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — Celebrating 15 years in 2019, the next Seaside First Saturday Art Walk will be held 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, April 6. The free event takes place between Holladay Drive and Broadway Street in the Historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

Starry Night Inn

811 First Ave.

Introducing Ian Anderson, whose ink drawings on castaway tomes such as aps, pamphlets, songbooks, dictionaries and old magazines have become his brand.

Blue Bond Art Studio and Gallery

417 S. Holladay Drive

Featuring oil paintings and acrylics by Blue Bond, a Seaside artist whose specialty is portraits and wildlife. With more than 50 years of experience, the artist teaches one-on-one classes in oil and acrylic to novices and experienced painters alike.

'Aqua Swirl,' a glass mosaic by Suzanne Vaughan at Angi D Wildt Gallery.

Angi D Wildt Gallery

737 Broadway St., #2

Featuring Ty McNeely's photography, Suzanne Vaughan's mosaic sculptures, Quata Cody's paintings, Louis Andrew Schaffer's handblown glass, J. Wesley Willis' paintings, Nancy Bosse's slumped glass, Cindy Erickson's fine art jewelry, Bud Egger's bronze and marble sculptures, and Julie Olson's pastels, oils and giclees.

Westport Winery

810 Broadway St.

Featuring Josh Fry, a self-taught native Seaside artist who creates using spray paint cans combined with complex stencils. A firm believer that anyone can make art with practice, he produces a YouTube series, teaches classes and does live painting shows for area youth and other organizations.

The Whet Spot

12 N. Holladay Drive

Featuring local artists ranging from the amateur to the professional. The Whet Spot offers a relaxed, friendly, adults-only atmosphere where patrons can enjoy craft beers, ciders and wines.

Seaside Yarn and Fiber

10A N. Holladay Drive

Hosting two Pacific Northwest makers. Bigfoot Yarn Co. will offer a mix of beautiful hand-dyed yarns from Bremerton, Wash., and Stormy Weather Knits will offer hand-knit beanies, headbands, kids hats and other keepsake knit items.

Art-in-the-Loft at Beach Books

616 Broadway St.

Carole Zenny and Lori Hicke are mixed-media artists dedicated to following their creative dreams wherever they take them. Zenny is a French artist born and raised in a French Colony Island in the Western Caribbean. Hicke is a multimedia artist whose work embraces several creative disciplines, including painting, printmaking/collage and hand-painted, functional, ceramic art pieces.

Denise Fairweather photos

'Rick and Morty,' spray art by Josh Fry at Westport Winery.

'Wedding,' a painting on china by P. Buckley Moss at Pacific Heirloom.

Fairweather House & Gallery

612 Broadway St.

Opening artist reception for "Life Abundant," featuring artists Bill Baily, Barbara Bacon Folawn, Martha Lee, Emily Miller, Veronica Russell, Jan Shield and introducing oil painter James Waterhouse and watercolor artist Carolyn Wagler. Painting demonstration, live music by Shirley 88 and a local habitat lecture by Neal Mail at 6 p.m.

Pacific Heirloom

608 Broadway St.

Featuring the plate collection of P. Buckley Moss — art-filled with a lifetime of experiences, from her Irish-Italian heritage to her urban art school education, from the laughter of her children to the simplicity of birds flying.

'Yellow Crocus,' acrylic on board by Barbara Bacon Folawn at Fairweather House & Gallery.

SunRose Gallery

606 Broadway St.

Featuring whimsical art by Ronni Harris, who sketches designs on fabric, paints in acrylic and highlights her art in stitching techniques. Also featuring artists Jan Barber, Robin Montero, Susan Hildebrandt, Bill Vlek, Vicki Sullivan, Patty Thurlby and Cathy Tippin.

Shine Fair Trade

609 Broadway St.

Featuring handmade Blossom-Wood bags made with recycled material from an artist in Nehalem. Also featuring silk banners selected from the Fair Trade Federation. Live music by local musicians.

Find additional original art during the day at Seaside Coffee House, 3 N. Holladay Drive; Seaside Antique Mall, 726 Broadway St.; and Dough Dough Bakery, 8 N Holladay Drive.