Banks shuts out Gulls

The Daily Astorian

Banks collected 14 hits over four innings, on its way to a 12-0 win over Seaside in a Cowapa League softball game Tuesday at Banks.

Pitchers Kaylin Hernandez and Halle Vandomelen combined to throw a one-hitter with six strikeouts and a walk, helping Banks improve to 8-5 overall.

Emma Meyer had the lone hit for the Gulls, while Vandomelen was 3-for-3 for the Braves, with three RBIs and two doubles. Hannah McCourt also drove in three runs.

Seaside (3-10 overall) plays a nonleague game Thursday at Blanchet Catholic, before returning to league play next Tuesday at home vs. Banks.

Nestucca challenges, but Knappa beats Bobcats

The Daily Astorian

Nestucca put up a tough battle through five innings, but that was it, as Knappa eventually got the bats going in a 9-1 win Tuesday over the Bobcats in a Northwest League baseball game at Teevin Field.

Leading 2-1 heading into the bottom of the sixth, Knappa scored seven runs, helping the Loggers win their 24th consecutive league game going back to 2017.

Nestucca was the last team to defeat Knappa in league play, topping the Loggers 2-1 on April 18, 2017.

Since then, no team has even come close to beating Knappa in league, as the Loggers won their last eight league contests in 2017, went 12-0 last year, and improved to 4-0 this season with Tuesday's win.

Knappa starting pitcher Tristin Wallace worked the first three innings before giving way to Eli Takalo, who struck out seven batters with two hits allowed over the final four innings.

Bobcat pitcher Logan Blackburn allowed just two Knappa hits through four innings, before being replaced by Mitchell Richwine and then Ivan Palos in the fifth.

Krissy Barendse-Goodman

Knappa starting pitcher Tristin Wallace pitched three solid innings in Tuesday's win over Nestucca.

Nestucca loaded the bases on one hit and two walks in the top of the first, but Wallace worked out of the jam.

After scoring at least one run in their previous 12 innings against Gaston, the Loggers did not score in their first plate appearance Tuesday, and Nestucca held Knappa scoreless in two of the next four innings.

In the second inning, Knappa's Cameron Miethe had a one-out single, stole second and scored moments later on a ground ball by Devin Hoover.

Knappa went scoreless in the third and fourth innings, before picking up a run in the fifth when Blackburn was replaced by Richwine, then Palos.

The Bobcats scored their lone run off Takalo in the top of the sixth, as Richwine singled and scored on a base hit to center by Ben Hurliman.

And that seemed to bring the Logger bats to life in the bottom of the sixth.

Logan Bartlett had a leadoff double, and one out later Hoover drove in his second run with a ground ball that scored courtesy runner Luke Goozee for a 3-1 lead.

Ryson Patterson continued the rally with a base hit to center, Jaxson Goodman was hit by a pitch and Ryker Coffey singled to load the bases.

Wallace singled to right field, and an error on the play allowed both Patterson and Goodman to score for a 5-1 advantage.

Shaun Lackey's single to center brought in Coffey and Wallace, and a double by Takalo plated Lackey.

The Bobcats made their third pitching change, but the Nestucca collapse continued with another error that allowed Bartlett to reach base, and Takalo scored on a third error in the inning for a 9-1 lead.

The same two teams return to action with a doubleheader Friday at Nestucca.

Astoria girls golf team second at Banks Invite

The Daily Astorian

It was another 1-2 finish, respectively, for the Valley Catholic and Astoria girls golf teams Monday, in the Banks Invitational at Quail Valley golf course.

Valley Catholic's Challin Kim and Annmarie Gallardo had the top two individual scores, helping the Valiants to a 363 team score. Kim was the medalist, with an 80, followed by Gallardo (90).

Astoria's Samantha Hemsley was third overall with a 92, leading the Fishermen to a 452 team score for second in the team standings.

Rounding out Astoria's individual scoring were Jenna Travers (99), Constance Rouda (124), Xochitl Perez (137) and Kaitlyn Boutin (140).

Oregon Episcopal was fourth in team scoring with a 484, followed by Seaside with a 527 for fifth place.

The Gulls' Tristyn McFadden shot 53 on both the front and back nine for a team-low 106, followed by Caitlin Hillman (122), Emma Arden (135) and Elise Seppa (164).

"Scores were up a little due to some sloppy course conditions, so overall things went pretty well," said Astoria coach Chris Hunt, whose team hosts the Astoria Invitational next Monday at noon at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

Double plays help Astoria top Tillamook

The Daily Astorian

Astoria scored three runs in the bottom of the fourth, and that was plenty to beat Tillamook, 3-1, in a Cowapa League baseball game Tuesday at CMH Field.

The Cheesemakers still managed to outthit the Fishermen, seven to four, but three straight Astoria hits in the fourth inning led to a three-run inning.

That was enough for Astoria pitcher Dylan Rush, who struck out four with one walk and three hit batters, and relied on his defense and two double plays to do the rest.

In the fourth-inning rally,

Astoria's Ebin Hillard had a lead-off triple to right, then scored on a base hit by Josiah Hirsch. Danny Johnson followed with a double to put runners at second and third.

Hirsch came in on a grounder by Balan Kolee, and Johnson later scored on a wild pitch.

Tillamook had three straight hits to load the bases with no outs in the top of the fifth, but the Fishermen turned a double play, and Colton Harmon lined out to Astoria's shortstop Burke Matthews to end the inning.

Astoria plays Newport in a nonleague game Wednesday. The 5 p.m. contest will be played at Tillamook.
