

It's spring so they will sing

Featuring a variety of popular stage and screen music

RAYMOND, Wash. —The Willapa Harbor Chorale presents its annual spring concert 7 p.m. Sunday, May 5 at the historic Raymond Theater located at 323 Third St.

Twenty-three singers will join voices to perform a variety of popular stage and screen music. Among the songs to be presented during the hour-and-half concert will be "With a Song in My Heart" from the "Sound of Music," "Stormy Weather"

and "The Impossible Dream."

The chorale is directed by Kathy Holland, with James Worlton as accompanist, and a large caste of soloists including Linda Snodgrass, Virginia Basil, Linda Strozyk, Karen Tully and Jay Windisch.

There is no charge for the concert; although, donations are accepted. A free reception across the street from the theater at the Raymond Elks Lodge No. 1292 follows the concert.

Enjoy Old-Fashioned Fun and Games at the Flavel House

Make your own butter, press apples for juice, ride in a horse-drawn wagon, see a blacksmith at work and participate in a pie-eating contest

ASTORIA — Turn off the electronic devices, step back in time, and enjoy a fun, relaxing, and free afternoon on the grounds of the Flavel House Museum.

Thanks to our friends at Columbia Memorial Hospital the annual Old-Fashioned Fun and Games event returns to the Flavel House Museum 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, May 4-5. Each day will be full of fun activities for kids and adults; including croquet, badminton, contests and prizes, apple pressing, butter- and ice cream-making demonstrations, textiles, blacksmithing, wagon rides, hands-on activities, and more.
