Big inning lifts Taft over Warrenton in softball

By GARY HENLEY
 The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — Eliminate the top half of the fifth inning, and the Warrenton Warriors are probably celebrating a win over the fifth-ranked team in the state.

As it was, the Taft softball team scored six runs in the fifth inning — including five runs with two outs — and that sparked the Tigers to a 7-3 win Tuesday afternoon over the Warriors.

Other than one-half inning, Warrenton went toe-to-toe with the Tigers, even holding a 3-1 lead through four innings.

Warrior pitcher Mia McFadden had the Taft hitters off-balance, while the Warrenton infield came within inches of turning a triple play in the top of the fifth, which would have ended Taft's big inning after just one run scored.

Instead, the Tigers managed to avoid the triple play, after which they had three hits and two hit batters, and took advantage of a Warrenton error to score three of the next five runs.

Taft pitcher Emma Coulter did the rest, tossing a six-hitter with eight strikeouts and no walks. She kept the Warriors scoreless over their last four at-bats. Coulter retired 11 of the final 14 batters she faced, giving up seventh inning singles to Claire Bussert and Aveyree Miethe.

Miethe had three hits and Kenzie Ramsey had a pair of singles for the Warriors, who drop to 2-6 in league, but are still ranked 15th in the latest state rankings.

Coulter was 4-for-4 at the plate to her own cause, and Taft finished with 12 hits off two Warrenton pitchers.

The Tigers stranded 12 baserunners, while the Warriors turned a pair of double plays, but committed four errors.

led to runs for the Warriors, while Warrenton pitchers Devin Jackson and Dalton Knight did the rest, with solid defense in support.

"It was really a well-played game," Wolfe said. "We just did a fantastic job defensively."

After the Tigers had closed to within 2-1 in the top of the fifth, the Warriors answered with two runs in the bottom of the inning, on doubles by Austin Little and Gabe Breitmeyer.

Jake Morrow also had a double and two runs batted in for Warrenton, which improves to 8-1 in league, first place over Rainier (6-3), which swept a doubleheader from Clatskanie.

The Warriors play a doubleheader Friday at Clatskanie.

Clutch hits help Warrenton beat Taft

Some timely hitting for the Warrenton baseball team was the only difference in a well-played contest Tuesday afternoon at Huddleston

Field, where the Warriors outlasted Taft 4-2 in another key Coastal Range League showdown.

"Both teams pitched well, both teams had six hits and neither team committed an error," said Warrenton coach Lennie Wolfe. "What it came down to, was we had a couple more clutch hits than they did."

Key hits in the first, third and fifth innings

Bartlett drives in six runs in 20-7 Knappa win

The Daily Astorian

The Knappa Loggers were taking batting practice Tuesday afternoon at Portland Christian, where the Loggers collected 19 hits in just five plate appearances for an easy 20-7 Northwest League baseball win over the Royals.

Knappa scored four runs in the first inning, followed by four in the second, three in the third, six in the fourth and three more in the fifth.

Nine different Loggers had hits, three apiece for Tristin Wallace, Logan Bartlett and Cameron Miethe.

Bartlett had a single, triple and a home run, and drove in six runs for Knappa, which had seven doubles and three triples.

The Loggers host Portland Christian for a doubleheader Friday.

Seaside second, Astoria third in league tournament

The Daily Astorian

Seaside finished second, and the Astoria girls golf team shot its second-best team score of the year to finish third, in the Cowapa League championships.

The Fishermen were the host team Monday for the one-day tournament at the Astoria Golf & Country Club, where Valley Catholic won the team title with a 369 team score.

Seaside finished second behind the Valiants with a 444, followed by Astoria (449) and Tillamook (507).

Valley Catholic's Challin Kim was a medalist with an 83, topping teammate Megan Birrell (93) by 10 strokes.

Anmarie Gallardo of Valley Catholic was third with a 95, one stroke ahead of Astoria's Jenna Travers with a 96.

Astoria senior Samantha Hemsley placed sixth with a 100, followed by three Seaside golfers: Caitlin Hillman (106), Tristyn McFadden (107) and Sydney Rapp (107).

Rounding out the Seaside scores were Emma Arden (124) and Elise Seppa (126), while Astoria's Annalyse Steele shot a 124, followed by teammates Katie Boutin (129) and Constance Rouda (137).

The Cowapa golfers will be in action again on Monday and Tuesday, in the state-qualifying regional tournament at Quail Valley Golf Course.

Ramvick homers in Knappa win over Royals

The Daily Astorian

Knappa's Vicki Ramvick was 3-for-4 at the plate with a home run and five runs batted in, more than enough for the Loggers in a 17-2 Northwest League softball win Tuesday at Portland Christian.

Knappa improves to 10-6 in league play, second in the standings behind Vernonia. Portland Christian falls to 0-17 overall.

Emily Nicholson pitched the first three innings for the Loggers to pick up the win, with Hannah Dietrichs tossing the final two innings.

Madelynn Weaver celebrated her birthday with two hits, including a double and three RBI's. Bayle McCall added a triple for the Loggers, who host a Friday doubleheader with the winless Royals.
