

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

Aug.

11

5 to 8 p.m.

1. The Art Loft 106 Third St.

Featuring Rhona Gewin and Jane McGeehan. Gewin creates whimsical and incredibly clever metal sculptures out of kitchen steamers, baby cups and almost anything metal. See her flying bicycle and you'll understand. McGeehan's masterful watercolors, a variety of vivid scenes, are sure to delight the most discerning art lover. Join us from 1–4 p.m. just above Dots N' Doodles.

2. WineKraft 80 10th St. (Pier 11)

Featuring work from six local artists, as well as live music starting around 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. We are the perfect location for you to wrap up your art walking!

3. Paul Polson Gallery 100 10th St.

Will be presenting his Pipe Series. There are new oil paintings, as well as smaller oil paintings from the Strata Series.

4. Blue Collar Collective 106 10th St.

We are excited to begin showing original art, mixed media sculpture, banners and paper arts, in addition to photographic prints from local artists. New items from Pacific Northwest artists arriving daily. Letter Writing Social and free studio time during Art Walk, as always!

5. McVarish Gallery 160 10th St.

Presenting the haunting monotype work of Nanette Wallace, a featured artist in the book "The Printmaking Ideas Book" by Octopus Publishing, London.

Her use of ghost imagery and various distressing methods, give the pieces a feeling of snapshots from a surreal past come to life. This powerful body of work was the inspiration for the Astoria Freak Show in the Secret Gallery that will be running concurrently with Art Walk.

6. Astoria Freak Show at the Secret Gallery 160 10th St

Produced by Chris Minnick, the Astoria Freak Show is a celebration of nature and human abilities in a circus sideshow setting. After the Freak Show, "The Circus Has Left Town" will open. Created by immersive installation artist Sondra Carr with the help of ACCA members, Freak Show volunteers and sponsors, the Secret Gallery has been transformed an entire circus inside a gallery.

7. Astoria Underground Tours 1125 Marine Drive

Stop by and find a wonderfully wacky gift or beautiful refurbished furniture.

8. Imogen Gallery 240 11th St.

See lush and spectacular photographs of Deb Stoner who combines her skills as photographer, researcher and gardener along with meticulous detail to create dramatic still life imagery. Reminis-

"Balancing Act" monotype on paper by Nanette Wallace is at McVarish Gallery.

"Asparagus Farmer" by Jill McVarish cent of Dutch masters, she weaves complex mazes of texture and color within each composition. Scale and precision are always at the forefront of her work.

9. Cargo 240 11th St.

Spring is here lots of fun T-shirts and kitchenware and cookbooks and decorations for parties

10. Luminari Arts 1133 Commercial St.

Luminari Arts features a trunk show of handbound journals crafted by local Jacob Storm Detherage. Come meet the artist and see a demonstration of the making of this upcycled hard cover book journals. Music with Michael Metzner and brothers Luke and Olaf Ydstie.

11. Forsythea 1124 Commercial St.

Stop in during Art Walk to see how we are changing and growing. Enjoy some refreshments and up a last-minute gift for the "Mom" in your life! See you soon!

Metal bird by Rhonda Gewin at Astoria Art Loft

"The Conversation" by L McDonald, acrylic on canvas

See Art Walk, Page 19