

LIBERTY[®] THEATRE

ASTORIA OREGON

PYXIS QUARTET

Performing Georg Friedrich Haas String Quartet No. 3,, In iij. Noct."

FRIDAY, JUNE 21st - 7:30pm

Complete darkness...an inky black canvas for a truly amazing musical performance. The 3rd String Quartet by Georg Friedrich Haas has quickly taken its place as a modern masterpiece, a tour de force of spectral music that is performed in absolute darkness. Darkness, however, is not present in this piece merely as an absence of light, but becomes the key theme of the work, with the musicians neither seeing their music nor their fellow performers, and seated as far apart from one another as possible. The work is subtitled In iij. Noct., a reference to the Roman Catholic Tenebrae service for Holy Week. Don't miss this bold event in the Liberty Theatre!

— PLEASE NOTE: THE HALL WILL BE COMPLETELY DARK FOR THIS PERFORMANCE. —

Purchase Tickets: libertyastoria.org

The Liberty Theater Box Office is open Wednesday - Saturday from 2PM until 5:30PM and 2 hours prior to curtain.

1203 Commercial St, Astoria, OR, 97103 // 503-325-5922

Word is the Manzanita Library's book sale is coming on May 24

MANZANITA — The North Tillamook Library Book Sale is 5-7 p.m. Friday, May 24, for Friends of the Library pre-sales and 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, May 25 for the public. The library is at 571 Laneda Ave.

They have lots of jobs that need to be filled. Help move books before the sale, set up books at the sale sites or do one of many available jobs during the sale. They really need people with strong backs and pickup trucks or utility trailers to help move the books from the sorting house to the sales sites.

Leave your name and contact information with one of the librarians or send an email to coordinator Madeline Olson at allanmadeline@aol.com.

Working for the book sale is a lot of fun, builds community, and helps raise much-needed funds for library projects. Plus volunteers get to buy up to five books before the sale — the pick of the crop!

Shoppers at a previous book sale at the Manzanita Library.

Catch two Scorsese films at Pioneer Presbyterian

WARRENTON — See "the collision of cultures and beliefs" in two Martin Scorsese films at Pioneer Presbyterian, 33324 Patriot Lane, near Camp Rilea.

"Kundun"

7 p.m. Friday, May 17

"As its imagery becomes more surreal and mystically abstract, Mr. Glass's ethereal electronic score, which suggests a Himalayan music of the spheres, gathers force and energy and the music and pictures achieve a sublime synergy." — Roger Ebert

"Silence"

4 p.m. Sunday, May 19

"A monumental work, and a punishing one. It puts you through hell with no promise of enlightenment, only a set of questions and propositions, sensations and experiences ... This is not the sort of film you 'like' or 'don't like.' It's a film that you experience and then live with." — Matt Zoller

"Kundun"

"Silence"

$5 per film or $8 for both.

Following the films, Seth Tichenor of Clatsop Community College, Dwight Caswell and Doug Rich will hold a discussion.