Celebrate Bob Dylan's 78th birthday at KALA

ASTORIA – KALA will celebrate legendary singer Bob Dylan's 78th birthday at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, May 24-25 at its downtown performance space, 1017 Marine Drive, with tributes from eight local and regional artists.

Doors open at 8 p.m. and tickets are $15 and are available in advance at libertyastoria.showare.com. There will be a full bar. This event is for people 21 and older.

Performers will sing works from Dylan's more than 60-year career, spanning 36 studio albums and more than 400 songs.

Local and regional performers include Luke Ydstie and Kati Claborn of Astoria-based duo The Hackles, who also sing with Blind Pilot; Adams & Costello; Dylan Clodgo; Birds of a Feather; Echo Returns; Dinah Urell; TATATA and special guests John Moen from the Decemberists and Jonathan Drews of Eyelids will also perform.

KMUN DJ will emcee.

KALA's house band includes guitarist Raymond Martin of TATATA, guitarist, keyboardist Graham Nystrom, singer and bassist Rebecca Newman of The Sharron Hartley Band and drummer Flint Rice.

Touring since the mid-80s on what some have called "The Never Ending Tour," Dylan recently played his 3,000th show in Austria on April 19.

Dylan was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2016 for his poetic folk contributions to American song.

Cascadia Chamber Opera presents 'I Pagliacci' in Astoria

ASTORIA — "I Pagliacci," or, "The Clowns," an opera by Ruggero Leoncavallo about love, romance and betrayal, will be performed by Cascadia Chamber Opera at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 1, at the Performing Arts Center, 588 16th St.

The play-within-a-play opera will feature soprano Jocelyn Claire Thomas as Nedda, Brennen Guillory as Canio, Stacey Murdock as Tonio, Scott Crandal as Peppe, Zachary Lenox as Silvio and piano accompaniment by Evan C. Paul.

Tickets are $15 and are available at bit.ly/2HnmBn9.

The opera runs 1 hour and 20 minutes and is sung in Italian with English subtitles.

Thomas is a Portland-based soprano and has sung with operas around the Northwest. She has also performed in the Astoria Music Festival.

Guillory has sung with opera companies on both East and West coasts, most recently at the 31st Mahler Festival in Colorado.

Murdock sings with Portland Opera and has appeared in productions throughout the Northwest. He has also sung in the Astoria Music Festival and Portland Summerfest.

Crandal has performed with Portland Opera, Ping & Woof Opera and Bravo Northwest.

Lenox has performed with the Portland and Eugene operas as well as other companies throughout the Northwest. He has also performed in the Astoria Music Festival.

Paul has worked with Portland Opera, Cascadia Chamber Opera and works as a collaborative pianist based in Portland.

Cascadia Concert Opera is a non-profit performing arts organization based in Oregon. The organization is dedicated to engaging communities in the musical storytelling of opera and presents operas featuring the region's artists in cities across the Northwest.
