

Photos by Colin Murphey/The Astorian

Badminton players take to the court.

OPEN COURT SPORTS AT PATRIOT HALL

By COLIN MURPHEY
The Astorian

All of the open court options at Patriot Hall at Clatsop Community College — pickleball, badminton, volleyball, tennis and basketball — deal with some sort of net. All are free and open to the public provided you are registered with Bandit Community Fitness. More information about times and how to register can be found on the Clatsop Community College website.

The pickleball ends up in the net.

Michael Carruthers, left, prepares to receive a serve during a game of badminton.

A player sends the shuttlecock over the net.

Players try to keep the shuttlecock in play during a badminton match.

Pat Keefe, right, leaps into the air during a pickleball match.