

Continued from Page 7

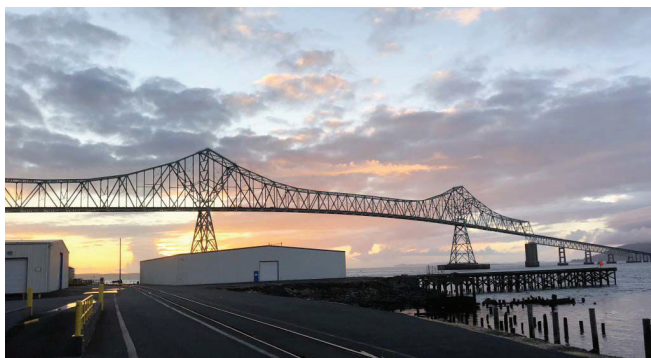

at Cape Disappointment. The free concerts happen on Saturdays through August.

The park offers hikes through forests, lakes, salt-water marshes and ocean tidelands. Its beaches are perfect for walks, kite flying or sandcastle building.

You can also explore the park's military history and connection to Lewis & Clark's Corp of Discovery expedition.

Fort Stevens Sate Park

This 4,300 acre behemoth park offers a plethora of activi-

Jonathan Williams

The Astoria Riverwalk.

ties to do and sites to see.

Swim at Coffenbury Lake. Take a walk on the beach and see the Peter Iredale shipwreck and the Pacific Ocean. Explore Trestle Bay, its hidden beaches and views of the Columbia River and ocean.

Colin Murphey

Cliffs at Oswald West State Park offer visitors expansive views of the Pacific Ocean.

the hills of Astoria.

The Riverwalk is accessible from multiple spots throughout Astoria, and those who traverse it can find places to eat, drink and shop close by.

Check out this week's See + Do calendar on pages 10 and 11 for more outdoor activities to try all weekend long.

Fort Stevens State Park is the perfect place to picnic, swim, run, bike or camp.

Richard Fencsak Cathedral Tree Trail

This steep trail to the Astoria Column from Irving Ave. is worth the climb.

Immerse yourself briefly in the wildlife and nature all around as you traverse this 1.5 mile (3 mile roundtrip) trail.

And don't forget to take a photo of the 300-year old Sitka spruce tree.

The views from the Astoria Column make the steep hike and navigating of roots all the more rewarding.

Astoria Riverwalk

The 6.4-mile paved, flat path offers runners, walkers and bikers views of the Columbia River, Pier 39, Alderbrook, the Astoria Bridge, as well as houses nestled into

Dining Out NORTH COAST AND PENINSULA

CAMP 18 RESTAURANT
503.755.1818
www.camp18restaurant.com
Favorite stop to & from the Coast

I putter around here all day just to be on time for the Happy Hour!
Mon-Fri 4-6pm
$1 off Draft Beers or a Well Drink
Seaside Golf Course
451 Ave U Seaside
503-738-5261
seasidegolfcourse@gmail.com

BA BAKED ALASKA
DINING ROOM • PIZZERIA • BAR
THE ONLY THING WE OVERLOOK IS THE COLUMBIA RIVER
TUESDAY PIZZA SPECIAL
2 Pizzas for $22
503.325.7414
bakedak.com
#1 12th Street, Astoria, OR

FAMILIES WELCOME!
HUNGRY HARBOR GRILLE
313 Pacific Hwy, Downtown Long Beach, WA
360-642-5555 • www.hungryharbor.com
—COME ENJOY OUR KITE ROOM—

IMAGINE YOUR Restaurant Advertised HERE!
The DEPOT Restaurant
38TH & L, ON THE SEAVIEW BEACH APPROACH
360-642-7880
THE DEPOT DECK IS OPEN!

Get cozy with Jan Bono's fourth book

ILWACO, Wash. — Long Beach Author Jan Bono is celebrating the release of her fourth cozy mystery in the Sylvia Avery Series 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, June 8, at the Olde Towne Coffee Café, 108 First Ave. N.

"Hook, Line, & Sinker" is a continuation of the misadventures of The Veiled Rainbow, the geriatric belly dancing troupe introduced in Book 3, in a planned eight-book Sylvia Avery Mystery series.

Set on the southwest Washington coast, the book chronicles the geriatric belly-dancing widows of the peninsula as they look for love again, and Sylvia Avery is recruited to help them navigate the hoops, hurdles and hustles of online dating, according to the author's description.

A cozy mystery is a very specific genre — no graphic violence, no obscene language, no explicit sex scenes. It involves an amateur sleuth in a small town who works with the police department to solve crimes. There is a quirky cast of characters and lots of humor.

Jan Bono

For more information on the signing, call 360-642-4932 or visit facebook.com/OldeTowneTradingPost

