Theatre seeks young actors for week-long performing arts camp

ASTORIA – The Missoula Children’s Theatre seeks actors grades 1-12 to join them for their Saturday, July 20, performance. Auditions are 10 a.m. Monday, July 15, followed by a week of rehearsals from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday-Friday, July 15-19. All events take place at the Liberty Theatre, and participation is free.

The group will perform at 3 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. July 20. Tickets are $5.

The group is looking to cast 50-60 student actors to create a rendition of “Gulliver’s Travels,” in which Gulliver gets lost in outer space and looks to aliens and robots for help. No advanced preparation is necessary for auditions – students should be ready to come with a smile!

The Missoula Children’s Theatre is the nation’s largest touring children’s theatre and has been touring for more than 40 years. The tour team arrives with a set, lights, costumes, props and make-up, and a Tour Director will work with local children to conduct the show and enhance student self-esteem, creativity, communication and social skills.

Eight of the 10 cast members who all play Marie Antoinette.

Pier Pressure Productions stages ‘A Brioche with Greatness’ July 15

ASTORIA – Pier Pressure Production presents “A Brioche with Greatness,” at 10:15 a.m. and 7:15 p.m. Monday, July 15, at 1015 Commercial St.

The performances are free and donations will be accepted.

The performance is an interactive museum that features a dozen Marie Antoinette living wax figures who share the truths, lies and secrets about the last Queen of France.

Rhonda Alderman, Pamela Alegria, Gigi Chadwick, Cherise Clarke, Kelli Hughes, Clarissa Johnson, Nancy Montgomery, Jenni Newton, Meri Reiley and Lori Wilson Honl all play Antoinette.

The Ten-Fifteen performances are part of an ongoing effort to raise funds for the theater.

Through generous donations and the efforts of community members, Daric Moore and Susi Brown have continued their progress toward the theater’s grand opening in September.
