

4th annual Crawfish Boil fundraiser on tap

ASTORIA— The Brownsmead Grange presents the 4th annual Crawfish Boil Fundraiser on Saturday, Aug. 3, from 6-8 p.m. at 42280 Fish Lane. Tickets are $25 for adults and $8 for children 12 and under. Tickets must be purchased online at brownsmeadgrange.ticketspice.com/crawfish2019 prior to July 31.

The event features music and a family-style dinner of various seafood and vegetables, as well as sweet or spicy crawfish caught locally. Beer and wine is available.

All proceeds go to the Brownsmead Grange for repair and maintenance of the community hall.

Mike Patterson will lead an early morning birding walk from 8-10 a.m. Friday, Aug. 2, at the Circle Creek Conservation Center in Seaside.

Birdwatching, botanical drawing and more at Circle Creek in August

SEASIDE – The North Coast Land Conservancy offers summer outings throughout August at Circle Creek Conservation Center, including nature-based walks, workshops and more. Events are hosted by an array of artists, scientists and naturalists and are free unless otherwise noted.

Naturalist Mike Patterson will lead an early morning birding walk through a variety of habitats on Friday, Aug. 2, from 8-10 a.m. On Saturday, Aug. 17, from 8-10 a.m., Patterson will share a glimpse of the variety of moths that inhabit the property.

On Friday, Aug. 5, from 1-3:30 p.m., artist Dorota Haber-Lehigh will lead a botanical drawing workshop focusing on drawing non-native invasive species that can be found at Circle Creek and elsewhere in the region.

On Tuesday, Aug. 27, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., geologist Tom Horning will explore how habitat is influenced by geology on a walk through the floodplain and forest.

Space is limited and registration is required for some events. Register at NCLCtrust.org/on-the-land-summer-outings.
