ART WALK

August 3
5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — Celebrating 15 years in 2019, the next Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, will be held 5 to 7 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 3. The free event takes place between Holladay Drive and Broadway Street in the Historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

Shine Fair Trade, 609 Broadway St.

Featuring award winning North Coast artist Audene Jay. Her art includes painting, jewelry, lapidary, poetry, performance art, music, professional knitting and clothing design. She has taught Fearless Drawing and enjoys being diverse and having freedom to express herself in many media. "Change is the only constant."

Gilbert District Gallery, 613 Broadway St.

Featuring working artist and teacher Ian Ricker with oils reflecting the beauty of the landscapes and wildlife of Alaska, the Pacific Northwest and western themed art. In addition, featuring Ricker's spouse, wildlife artist Jennie Truitt.

Peddler's Row, 604 Broadway

Featuring vintage oils, designer goods and work created by artisans. Peddler's Row is a new-old business curated by Avery Loschen and Will Perkins, property owners of the Gilbert Block Building.

SunRose Gallery, 606 Broadway St.

Featuring the richly decorative storytelling art of bead mosaic artist Zemula Fleming. She says, "I am particularly fascinated by the icon and its power to evoke adoration and reverence." Also introducing the textile art of musical artist Jennifer Goodenberger, new ceramic work by Charlotte Bruhn and sand dollar mosaics by Mimi Cernyar Fox. Live music provided by guitarist David Crabtree accompanied on saxophone and flute by Ray Coffey.

Pacific Heirloom Art and Collectables, 608 Broadway St.

Featuring antique cobalt blue glass. The characteristic bright dark blue identifies it for the collector. Most cobalt glass found today was made after the Civil War. It was made using oxide of cobalt.
