

Movies in the Park, presented by Astoria Parks and Recreation, return to the big screen at Fred Lindstrom (Peter Pan) park on Aug. 7.

Outdoor summer movies return

ASTORIA – Movies in the park return to the big screen at dusk every Wednesday in August at Fred Lindstrom (Peter Pan) park.

These events are free and concessions are provided.

On Aug. 7 “How To Train Your Dragon: Hidden World,” will be shown followed by “Moana,” on Aug. 14. “Detective Pikachu” plays Aug. 21 with Disney’s “Dumbo” capping off the showings on Aug. 28.

This is the tenth year of Movies in the Park presented by Astoria Parks and Recreation.

For more information, visit astoriaparks.com.

All things garlic at Clatskanie Garlic Festival

CLATSKANIE – The 5th Annual Garlic Festival will bring garlic growers from Oregon and Washington to Cope’s Park from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17.

The event accompanies the park’s weekly Saturday Market. Music, food, cooking demonstrations, vegetables, crafts and children’s activities will be featured. The festival will feature at least 30 strains of garlic including heirloom and gourmet hard neck and soft neck garlic. Cooking garlic as well as seed garlic will be sold. The bulbs have been cured so they will stay fresh for six to ten months depending on the variety. Spicy through mild strains will be available, as well as pickled garlic, dried garlic scape sprinkles, garlic braids and artisan breads.

This year’s Garlic Festival in Clatskanie will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 17, at Cope’s Park, 11 Lillich St.