

Photos by Hailey Hoffman/The Astorian

Corgis and owners gather for the judging of the Best Beach Bootie Costume contest.

CORGIS CAROUSE IN CANNON BEACH

By HAILEY HOFFMAN
The Astorian

More than 1,300 people, 550 corgis and 68 other dogs attended the 2019 Corgi Beach Day fundraiser for the Oregon Humane Society at Cannon Beach on Saturday. Corgis and their owners played on the beach, competed in costume competitions and ran in races to raise money for less-fortunate pets.

Two corgis play-fight on the beach.

Scott Collinsworth releases corgis 'Marshall' and 'Daisy' to run free with the hundreds of other corgis on the beach.

'Rye' celebrates his first birthday at the beach.

Corgis, their humans and other dogs run around Cannon Beach together.

LEFT: 'Dresden' returns with an ice cream squeaker toy while playing fetch with his owner, Matt Beldyk. RIGHT: Bryan Lauer greets his corgi 'Lela.'

WATCH A VIDEO OF THE FUN ONLINE AT DAILYASTORIAN.COM