

Gin Laughery's 'The Morning Path' monotype at Imogen Gallery.

LEFT: Rebecca Sentgeorge's 'Astro Boy' at RiverSea Gallery. MIDDLE: Jenessa Manion 'Seafoam' acrylic on canvas. RIGHT: Mixed media work by Diane Jackson at Luminari Arts. BELOW: A Sámi style bracelet from Nomadic Artistry.

The Franklin Apartments

Providing Elegance & Efficiency to Downtown Astoria for Over 100 Years

1432 Franklin Avenue
Community Property Management

503-325-5678

Continued from Page 2

Hidden Underground Experience and to exhibit their strange and unusual items in the WS LAB. Come Gawk, or participate. Meet fellow collectors of the odd object at Exquisite Corpse. 10% off store items if you're in costume.

6. KALA, 1017 Marine Drive

KALA presents Astoria/Portland artist Jenessa Manion. Lifetime painter Manion takes a break from realism, discovering a new passion in abstract and mixed media fluid painting — to invoke mood and imagination for its viewers. Meet Manion and enjoy refreshments from 5–8 p.m. during art walk.

7. Astoria Vintage Hardware, 1162 Marine Drive

We are hosting friends Martha Stephens and Jen Hufnagel as they display individual and joint creations in this month's Pop Up Shop. Stephens creates whimsical animal mounts and shadow boxes. Hufnagel will be sharing a variety of fiber craft pieces and handmade leather wallets. They have also created a wonderful collection of handmade soaps, a face cream and salve that would be a delightful addition to anyone's daily regimen.

8. Imogen Gallery, 240 11th St.

Featuring printmaker Gin Laughery, formerly of Astoria, who traded coastal life for the high plateau desert region of Central Oregon. Laughery brings a rich collection of monotype prints depicting landscape imagery through abstraction, color and texture. Laughery readily interprets her new terrain through printmaking, sharing a focused collection inspired by the high desert.

9. Cargo, 240 11th St.

October is the time for our 10th annual Day of the Dead alter. Stop by and visit with folks' art pieces from Mexico.

10. Finnware, 1124 Commercial St.

Augusta from Nomadic Artistry will be demonstrating Sámi style bracelet making. Pewter handicraft and weaving of bands involve a mixture of native and borrowed techniques dating back centuries.

11. Luminari Arts, 1133 Commercial St.

We are hosting the Second Annual Eye Ball featuring local artists Carol Edwards, Diane Jackson, Sid Deluca, Charlotte Bruhn and J Griffis. This is a fun celebration of the season, incorporating Halloween, Samhain and Day of the Dead elements. Eye Ball food by Debbie Shelton. Live music with Red Beans and Rice, showcasing the amazing talents of John Orr and Ted Brainard.

12. Forsythea, 1124 Commercial St.

The Fall Equinox has passed and there is no going back. We are embracing the season here at Forsythea with new scented candles, warm patterned pillows, scarves and a host of comfy products to enjoy the season.

13. Odd Things and Objects, 1445 Commercial St.

Proud to present the very talented Victoria Kingsbury on guitar for a special Libra birthday party. Today we all need the influence of these free spirited, fair and balanced creatures among us. Please join us for refreshments and a lively sing-along and check out our unique art and vintage treasures.

Continued on Page 5