

Seaside FIRST SATURDAY

ART WALK

Nov. 2
5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — Celebrating 15 years in 2019, the next Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, will be held 5 to 7 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 2. The free event takes place between Holladay Drive and Broadway Street in the Historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

Gilbert District Gallery, 613 Broadway

Featuring Seaside watercolor artist Dave Bartholet who has illustrated magazine covers and was commissioned by the National Wildlife Refuge to commemorate its 100 years. The gallery offers Bartholet's watercolors, limited edition prints, oil paintings, greeting cards and jewelry.

Shine Fair Trade, 609 Broadway St.

Artisan show featuring artists, potters, quilters, craft brewers and crafters who will display their talents and wares. All of the wonderful gifts you have come to expect from Fair Trade are waiting to be discovered. Snacks, drinks and live music provided.

Peddler's Row, 604 Broadway St.

Featuring an assortment of art and antiques ranging from woodcarvings to paintings to metalwork and more.

SunRose Gallery, 606 Broadway St.

An encore of the fall open house, the gallery presents resident artists Robin Montero, Jan Barber, Patty Thurlby and Cathy Tippin, who will all be present. Snack on tasty treats while enjoying live music by guitarist David Crabtree accompanied on saxophone and flute by Ray Coffey.

Pacific Heirloom Art and Collectables, 608 Broadway St.

Featuring a limited edition work by Rod Frederick, who attended Willamette University. In addition to his peaceful views of natural habitats, he is known for his art in different sizes and shapes — each chosen to best suit his balanced images of the wilderness.

'Sunset Quail' watercolor by Dave Bartholet at the Gilbert District Gallery.
