

Calling all holiday crafters

SKAMOKAWA, Wash. – Friends of Skamokawa seek vendors and crafters to participate in the annual holiday open house, “Deck the Hall,” which will run from Nov. 29 through Dec. 15 at Skamokawa’s River Life Interpretive Center, Central School and Redmen Hall, 1394 WA-4

Are you looking to sell your unique art or craft? Whether you are new to selling or have many years of experience, we would love to have you at this fun community event. We offer a warm and friendly holiday shopping environment for everyone to enjoy. Vendors do not need to be present during the three-week event. Items will be displayed on consignment.

Vendor items are due no later than 4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 25.

For more information or to sign up, contact 360-795-3007 or fos1894@gmail.

Nehalem Bay Garden Club accepting proposals for the 2019 gift program

NEHALEM – The Nehalem Bay Garden Club will award funding to local garden projects at the end of the year. The club is now accepting proposals for its 2019 gift program through Dec. 1.

Proposals should be submitted to PO Box 261, Wheeler, or emailed to bensonsbend@gmail.com.

Strong proposals will be one page or shorter and align with the club’s mission to cultivate the knowledge and love of gardening through educational programs and activities, to aid in the protection of the environment, native plants and wildlife and to support public service through garden-related organizations and volunteer opportunities.

Proposals should include amount needed, specific use and benefit to the organization or public. North county projects will receive highest priority. Gifts are usually $500 or less, but larger gifts can be considered if sufficient funds are available.

For more information contact Constance Shimek at 503-936-1511 or constance@nehalemnet.net.

The Nehalem Bay Garden Club is now accepting proposals for its 2019 gift program, with awards typically ranging up to $500.
